COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1935. 131st of the General Assembly.

Vol. 18. HARRISBURG, PA., MONDAY, JUNE 10, 1935 No. 73

SENATE

MONDAY, June 10, 1935.

The Senate met at 9 o'clock, P. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. William E. Howard, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Teach us, our Father, the full meaning of the word duty. Then give us a true sense of the beauty and glory of duty performed. Where duty points help us to go. What duty commands help us to do. High above all other figures towers her form. Clearer and louder than all their voices ring her clarion tones.

Enticing gestures and siren voices from the grosser elements of life ever strive to lead us away from duty's path. Like Ulysses may we seal our ears and close our eyes to all such allurements and steadily pursue our journey toward ultimate achievement.

True greatness, real statesmanship have been reached only by the men who did duty when so doing brought condemnation, danger and even death. We need such men today. May each member of this Senate be such a man! Amen.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of Senate Bill No. 1506 (House Bill No. 2745), be postponed for the present.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1508, on second reading, entitled:

An Act providing for the appropriation of certain waters of the Commonwealth to the Commonwealth for the benefit of the people thereof declaring void certain condemnations and appropriations of waters by private corporations providing for the ascertainment of the validity and the recording of certain condemnations and appropriations of water by private corporations and appeals therefrom conferring jurisdiction on the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County in relation thereto providing for future condemnations and appropriations of waters by private corporations and compensation therefor and conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Water and Power Resources Board be recommitted to the Committee on Forests and Waters for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. THOMPSSON (Centre). Mr. President, I rise in objection to the motion of the Senator from Philadelphia. Mr. Shapiro. I think it is perfectly apparent what influences have stalemated practically all of the bills in the Senate during this session in connection with the preservation or the purification of the waters of the Commonwealth. This bill does not, by the most fastidious stretch of the imagination, do any harm to any public utility. The bill is aimed at and does regulate the preemption of waters indiscriminately by that class of corporations in this State which have the right of eminent domain in the condemnation of the State's water resources. It does not interfere with private or municipal rights, but certainly does prevent the recurrence in this Commonwealth of some of the injurious preemptions that exist in this State at the present time.

I wish to voice my strenuous opposition to sending this bill back to Committee, where it will unquestionably rest for the balance of this session; and I demand a roll call on this motion

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I am exceedingly sorry that I cannot boast of the same privilege of representing utilities that some of my friends from the up-State disricts do. I certainly have no interest in public utilities when I am sending this bill back to committee. I have read this bill most carefully, and do not even have to stretch my imagination or my learning to understand that it interferes with the use of water by the City of Philadelphia. It would require the City of Philadelphia, before it can use any part of the Schuylkill River—which lies in the major portion of the City of Philadelphia—to go to somebody in Pennsylvania to get authority to do so; and for that reason I object to the bill. I do not know anything about the public utilities' use of this water. If they are abusing their privileges, the activities of my friends on the other side would soon stop it. I ask that this bill go back simply because I am interested in the City of Philadelphia; I do not represent any utility.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. THOMPSON (Centre) and Mr. FREY and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—30

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Amendments were offered by Messrs. BLUMBERG, SOWERS and SPROUL.

The SPEAKER. The amendment offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Section 1, page 5, line 27, by inserting between the words "producing" and "manufacturing" the word "bottling".

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The amendment offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend section one, page 8, section 201, line 20, by striking out the words: "Suspend and revoke"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would request that the House vote negatively on this amendment. This amendment seeks to take away from the Liquor Control Board the power of suspension and revocation of licenses. It had been the aim of the committee that had this bill in charge, the Law and Order Committee, so far as possible with convenience, dispatch and efficiency to extend more control to the Liquor Control Board in order to do away with the evils and inconsistencies of the past act. I feel that not only should the Liquor Control Board have the right to grant licenses, but also to suspend and revoke.

The cases of suspension and revocation are stated in the act. I therefore ask you to vote the amendment down.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the amendment before you raises this issue, shall more power be centralized in the Liquor Control Board? At the present time the Liquor Control Board may grant and may refuse to grant licenses and then the principle of the Brooks high license law comes into operation, and the applicant can go back to the county and ask for the granting of the license by the court.

The present bill seeks to amend the old law by extending the power of the Board to suspend and revoke licenses.

Now, if the Board is given the power to suspend licenses, then on any anonymous letter or on any kind of complaint the Board may suspend licenses and may keep them suspended for any length of time, during which time the licensee's business may be absolutely ruined.

A suspension for two or three days will ruin a man's business. Now then, the Board in this bill asks for the power of revocation. At the present time only the court can revoke a license.

Now, shall the Board have the power to revoke? The power to revoke is a very important power. The power in the court to revoke is a remnant of the Brooks high license law. If you give this Board the power to revoke, you give them a terrific power to penalize every licensee, because every time the Board revokes a license, then the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania sues out a two thousand dollar, a one thousand dollar or a ten thousand dollar bond. Every time your Liquor Control Board revokes a license under this bill, every licensee would be penalized in the amount of the bond that he put up in the amount of one thousand dollars, two thousand dollars or ten thousand dollars.

I submit to you, members of the House, that this is too great a power to place in a bureau here in Harrisburg. The licensee is placed at too great a handicap in bringing his witnesses all the way to Harrisburg, and the present system whereby the court in your county has the power to revoke, is the proper system. It means that the applicant may meet the Board on a parity: he is at home; he may bring his witnesses to court.

The Board can bring their witnesses to that court, but what applicant in Erie could bring them to Harrisburg without a two or three hundred dollar expense for his witnesses? The applicant or the licensee in Philadelphia, what licensee could bring to Harrisburg his witnesses under an expense of two or three hundred dollars?

I ask you, members of the House, in fairness to these licensees that pay a six hundred dollar license fee, that you vote "aye" on the amendment and do not increase the power of a bureau at Harrisburg to pass on the right of your constituents, and that you continue that right in your local court.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman from Philadelphia is certainly under an erroneous impression if he wants this House to believe that under this proposed amendment the Liquor Control Board may capriciously revoke or suspend a license, using as an illustration an anonymous letter.

I stated in my previous remarks to you that the basis on which there can be a suspension or revocation is stated plainly in the bill.

Now, anyone can read very plainly just what those conditions are, if they turn to pages thirty and thirty-one. I will read to you from the bottom of page thirty: "After a license has been issued under the provisions of this act, upon the petition of the Attorney General or the District Attorney of any County or upon the petition of fifteen or more taxpayer residents of the ward, borough or township where the place of business is located or upon his own motion note these words—"the Board upon sufficient cause being shown or proof being made that the licensee holding a license or any partners, members, officers or directors of the licensee has or have violated any of the laws of this Commonwealth relating to liquors, malt or brewed beverages or alcohol or other alcoholic beverages may upon due notice and proper hearing being given to the persons so licensed and complained against, suspended or revoked the licenses issued under the provisions of this act."

Then the paragraph goes on to state that when a license has been so suspended or revoked, any licensee feeling himself aggrieved,—then we will read at the bottom of that page "may appeal to the Court of Quarter Sessions of the County in which the premises in which said license was conducted are located. Such appeal shall be taken within twenty days from the date of revocation —" then there is a hearing de novo and if there is an adverse decision by the Court of Quarter Sessions the licensee is given the further right to appeal to the Superior Court.

The Board does not have the right to appeal from the Quarter Sessions Court if the Quarter Sessions Court has overruled the Board, but the licensee does have those two successive appeals.

Therefore, members of the House, I submit that the Board cannot be capricious or arbitrary in the suspension or revocation of the license. On the contrary the greatest safeguards have been inserted into the bill to protect the property rights of the licensee, but it is absolutely necessary if this system is not to be brought into disrepute, if we are to improve the distribution of alcoholic liquors in the State, and so long as this experiment of state control is to continue in this state, it is imperative that we give to the Liquor Control Board and its enforcement agents the right to at all times control the licensee, whether it be initially in the granting of the license or whether it be later in the conduct of the licensee's premises.

I, therefore, ask again that this amendment be defeated.

Mr. Speaker, if you will permit me to speak but one moment further, I neglected to answer the argument of the gentleman from Philadelphia referring to the fact that the licensee may have to come from various parts of the state. If you will glance at page twenty-nine, you will see that the state is to be divided into control districts by the Board. You will find in paragraph (b) page 29 "That the Board shall hold hearings on such applications as it deems necessary at a convenient place or places in each of said districts at such times as it shall fix by regulation for the purpose of hearing testimony for and against applications—" so that as a matter of fact there is a greater convenience in the establishment of districts. The idea is to offer the greatest convenience to the licensee and yet give the supervision and control to the state.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I wish to concur in the remarks of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, and add thereto that the act is only giving to the Board which has the power to grant licenses also the right to suspend and revoke upon cause shown; that is to say it is giving the Board that creates also the right to destroy, if cause exists; in other words it is making uniform their authority, and for that reason I am asking the members to vote down the amendment.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in reply to my friend from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, I want to call your attention to the fact that the procedure on page twenty-nine, in my opinion, only relates to the granting of licenses, not the suspension and revocation. Let us take the mild view of my friend from Philadelphia, by the time the licensee has all those things done, he will not even own the shirt on his back. By the time he gets started complying with all the features outlined in this bill, the poor licensee, after paying the costs, paying the stenographers, paying fees and paying other things, he won't have even the money to stock his place with liquor, should his license not be suspended. I ask you members of the House to preserve to these licensees that pay the Commonwealth six hundred dollars a year to do business in this state some rights, and let the courts, who have always acted fairly in the past, decide the question. Let them continue to do it, and I ask you to vote "aye" on this amendment.

Mr. Speaker, I ask for a roll call.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, there is just one other argument that was advanced by the gentleman from Philadelphia that I think ought to be corrected. He has stated erroneously to this House that if the Board capriciously suspended the license that the licensee can be put out of business. I want to direct your attention to the fact that on page thirty-seven at the top, when a license has been suspended a person who is aggrieved by such decision may immediately obtain from the Court of Quarter Sessions or county court in your particular district a supersedeas so as to stop the suspension of his license until he has had a hearing before the court, so that the attempt to say to you that the licensee would be ruined in the meantime is a fallacious argument and an erroneous argument made by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

So the question was determined in the negative and the amendment was not agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The amendment offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Section one, page 12, section 301, line 20, by adding after the word "at" the last word of the line the following: "But shall not after July 1, nineteen hundred and thirty-five, establish new places or stores for the sale of liquor."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the amendment that I now present to you brings forth the issue whether you are for the Board, whether you are for the enlargement of the State Store system for an additional investment of the Commonwealth's money in more stores. The amendment provides that after July 1 that no additional or new store may be opened by the State Liquor Control Board.

Now, this is important because there is still another amendment that will come before you. The other amendment, which is really a part of this one, provides that every licensee holding a hotel or restaurant license may sell a quart for consumption off the premises. Now, if the licensee is to pay a six hundred dollar license fee and if the State Store system is to be continued and Stores are to be put in and about these licensees, paying six hundred dollars license, then their business will be worthless and their six hundred dollars will be squandered.

I ask you members if you are against the further enlargement of this State Store system to vote for this amendment, and if you are for the next amendment that will come, for the sale by the licensee of a quart to take off the premises, then you should vote in the affirmative for this amendment.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I arise to oppose the amendments offered. These amendments attack the entire setup of the liquor stores in Pennsylvania, and if adopted will destroy the entire import and intent of this act because subsequent sections of this act grant to the liquor control board the right to control hours in which the stores may be open.

The object is to permit so-called one-man stores throughout the state of Pennsylvania, and to vitiate the objection now being found that there are not sufficient stores throughout this state in smaller communities to adequately take care of the business, and it is the desire,— and I am stating frankly it is the desire of the Liquor Control Board that that right be given to them so that they can meet the demands throughout the state, and above all else be in a position to beat and eventually destroy the bootlegging system now existing in this state.

I might add that if they are given this right they will actually have control of the retail trade. If the amendments of the gentleman from Philadelphia were followed it will take the liquor stores of Pennsylvania out of the retail business and place them alone in the wholesale business, and very frankly, if you desire to continue the system now existing in Pennsylvania you will give to the Liquor Control Board the right to open and conduct stores as business warrants. Without that right you will take away from them the complete control of liquor and you will eventually destroy the entire system. I do not hesitate to say that the actual or basic reason, in my opinion, for this amendment is to destroy the liquor control system of Pennsylvania as it now exists, and it is for that reason that I am asking the members of the House to vote down the amendment offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I only want to say a word in reply to my friend. The purpose of the amendment is not to strike down the Liquor control board, but to give to the underdog, the forgotten man, the licensee who parts with six hundred dollars, a chance to make a living. If the state stores are to be enlarged and go on, what will the man have for his six hundred dollars? What particularly will that man have to make a living? If the system as described by my friend who has just spoken is to be followed, then why not say to the men, "We are taking your six hundred dollars and giving you a gold brick."

I ask you, members of the House, to give that underdog, that licensee, something for his six hundred dollars.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, I might state in reply that the question that the gentleman raised will also subsequently be submitted to the House in the bill appearing on page 22. For that reason I renew my request that the amendment be defeated.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The amendment offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Section one, page 20, section 401, line 18, by striking out the following which is contained in lines 18 to 29 inclusive, namely: "Such licensees other than clubs shall be permitted to sell malt (liquor) or brewed beverages for consumption off the premises where sold in quantities of not more than seventy-two fluid ounces in a single sale to one person (() (and liquor for consumption off the premises where sold Liquor sales for consumption off the premises must be in original sealed packages as purchased from Pennsylvania Liquor Stores and in quantities not in excess of one quart to any person at the retail price as established by the board and no licensee shall permit any such vendee to break the seal of such a package on the premises where sold) ()) and insert in lieu thereof the following:—"Such licensees other than clubs shall be permitted to sell malt or brewed beverages for consumption off the premises where sold in quantities of not more than seventy-two fluid ounces in a single sale to one person and liquor for consumption off the premises where sold Liquor sales for consumption off the premises must be in original sealed packages as purchased from Pennsylvania Liquor Stores and in quantities not in excess of one quart to any person at the retail price not less than established by the board for retail sales in State Stores."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the amendment that I seek to put into the bill is the bill as originally drafted by the sponsors, and for the sponsors to be against this amendment, they are forced into the position of telling the House why they changed their minds. I cannot understand why the sponsors wrote into the bill the subject matter of this amendment and then afterwards changed their minds and forced it out. Now, I ask the House to restore the bill to the condition it was in when the sponsors drafted the bill. When they drafted this bill they were apparently in solitude and free from control and influence, they were free from somebody talking to them. Who that somebody was they will probably tell you in reply to my argument.

Members of the House, why should the bill be amended so as to return to its original condition? Tap room proprietors, many of them have been cheating, have been selling quarts and pints and half pints. That custom has been prevalent throughout the state. No amount of law that we can enact will stop it. No amount of snoopers and snipers and investigators that we can employ will stop it. Do we want to go back to the snoopers and snipers of the prohibition day? We must, if we want to continue the system of preventing the tap room proprietor from making a living. You must give this man a chance to make a living. If he doesn't have a chance to make a living, he will resort to evil ways.

If you vote for this amendment, you give to these licensees, these hotel licensees, these restaurant licensees, an opportunity to sell three bottles of beer or six bottles of beer to take out of the premises for consumption somewhere else. You give to those licensees the opportunity to sell liquor in original containers such as they purchased from the Liquor Control Board, and you give them the right to sell it up to a quart. You give them the right to sell it to be taken away from the premises and consumed elsewhere. Now, is it better to let the people buy the liquor in neighborhood stores? Is it better to let them buy their beer in neighborhood stores? Is it better for them to take it to their homes and consume it there than to sit some place and keep on consuming it so that they have to be carried home?

Now, under the old principle of the Brooks high license law, we permitted the licensees to sell beer up to a quart; we permitted them to sell liquor up to a quart. Shall we reestablish that custom? Shall we go back to that practice which was very fair and which produced very good results? I think, members of the House, this amendment is worthy of your most serious consideration and I ask you to vote "aye" for it.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, when this bill was before us last week on second reading, you will recall that the gentleman from Philadelphia proposed a great number of amendments. At that time he urged the recommitting of the bill to committee because he said this bill never had consideration by the committee, that he had had no opportunity to present his amendments to the committee and that the bill was railroaded out to the House. You will recall at that time I told you in objecting to the motion to recommit, whether we recommitted that bill or not, we would finally have these amendments before us at any rate.

Now, this bill was thoroughly considered by the Committee on Law and Order, of which the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers is a member. You will recall that last Wednesday evening this committee was in session upon the two liquor bills from half past eight until half past eleven. Mr. Sowers at that time proposed all of his amendments, and the committee at that time considered all of his amendments.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I object to discussing what occurred in committee and especially what occurred there when a member, not of the committee, was permitted to be present as a courtesy to him.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken and the gentleman will not divulge any of the proceedings in the committee.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, these bills were recommitted to the committee in accordance with the motion of the gentleman from Philadelphia, together with all of the amendments offered on the floor of the House last week. This committee sat and gave a full consideration to all the amendments and I want to point out this one fact, that on page 22 of today's calendar, on second reading you will find a bill by Representative Moore which has as its provision the point raised in the amendments now before you, to wit, whether the retail licensee shall have the right to sell liquor by the quart. This is a highly controversial point. It has been felt that for the good of the entire system, the present bill ought not to be endangered because of his amendment. It was therefore the consensus of opinion that the House ought to have the right to express itself upon this subject in another bill, and leave this question, this highly controversial question, out of the main bill, so that in the interest of securing this great advance in the control system we should pass bill No. 2437, in the form before us with the correction of some slight typographical errors. The House may express its conviction upon this question on its vote on page 22, House Bill 919.

Might I say further that the question of giving the retail licensee the right to sell by the bottle was advanced mainly because of the convenience to the citizens who purchase the liquor. Under the present bill it is proposed to establish what is known as one man stores. The board has the right to provide for the number of hours that the store may be in operation. At the present time it contemplates the immediate establishment of at least 250 additional stores to provide for the convenience of the public. Here, we are going to lay down the principle that this system is going to produce revenue for the state, we are going to abolish the system and go back to the Brooks high license system. Personally I am in favor of the latter system, but as long as we do have the present system and there is no opportunity for its repeal at this session, I say to you we must make the purchase of liquor most convenient to the public by the establishment of the one man stores, which will further insure revenue to the state. Just so long as the appropriation for our old age assistance and our blind pensions are dependent upon the liquor store profits, then so long must we insure the state substantial revenue from the operation of the stores.

For that reason I ask you to vote down this amendment, and you will have the opportunity of expressing your opinion upon this subject by a vote upon House Bill 919 on page 22 of today's calendar.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I wish to add to the remarks of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, stating that it was at the request, and when I say that it was at the request, it was not the direct request, but as the result of a statement made by the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board at their public hearings that we purposely eliminated the sections by which licensees were given the right to sell up to a quart. It was the one portion of this act that they were particularly opposed to. They felt that if adopted it would be going back to the same system that existed under the Brooks high license law, the same system that gave rise to prohibition, and I submit to the members of the House that if they want to go back to those days they will vote for the amendment offered by my friend from Philadelphia. If they wish the present order continued as it is now they will vote down this amendment.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in answer to my friend, permit me to say this, he states that at least 250 new stores will be established in Pennsylvania. Do you imagine for a moment that 250 stores additional in Pennsylvania can take care of the liquor traffic? Do you want the state of Pennsylvania to pay exhorbitant rent for its stores? Do you want the state of Pennsylvania to pay exhorbitant prices for the fixtures and equipment of the stores? Do you want the state of Pennsylvania to further go into the rum business?

Now, members of the House, if the licensees can sell by the quart, then the expenditure of erecting, renting and equipping 250 or 500 stores will be saved to the Commonwealth. Where do the licensees obtain the liquor that they sell? Do they not get it from the liquor control board? Do they not pay the profit that the liquor control board demands of them? Does not the liquor control board get the benefit of the sales of liquors to the licensee?

Let me answer my friend's argument about old age assistance. I opposed this Liquor Control System in the session preceding this and in other sessions following, the different special sessions. Why did I oppose it? For the reason that was stated by Governor Earle, stated by the different Democratic spellbinders in this Commonwealth, that the State Liquor System would never be managed in such a way as to make a profit and pay any old age assistance. They have miserably fallen down. Their history has been bad. We heard the Governor of our Commonwealth come on the floor of this House and denounce the liquor control system. We have heard a demand for an investigation. If he had thought that this system was good why did he denounce it and demand an investigation? Now, members, your own leader, that is the Democratic party of this House, your own Democratic leader, has condemned it and has ordered an investigation, stating that it is profitless.

My friend argued that unless the Liquor Control Board has exclusive power to sell by the quart, prohibition will come back. Unless the Liquor Control Board mends its ways and improves its habits it will bring prohibition back in a very short time. Was not the liquor control system originated and passed as an anti-prohibition measure? Was it not conceived by one of the dry Governors of our Commonwealth? Wasn't its real intent and purpose to make the people dissatisfied with liquor and bring about prohibition as fast as prohibition could be brought about?

Do any of you remember in the days of the Brooks high license law the kind of cabaret that we have today? Did all of the evils that tend to bring back prohibition,—did they exist before prohibition? Did they exist at the time of the Brooks high license law?

Members of the House, I ask you to vote "aye" upon this amendment, and I ask for a roll call.

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this particular provision that Mr. Sowers wants placed in this bill was discussed many, many times by the sponsors of the bill, and it was very, very carefully considered in Committee, and I again say to the members of this House that every person who has had any experience whatsoever in the enforcement of the liquor acts and the beer acts of this Commonwealth is unalterably opposed to allowing this provision to go into the act. I ask the members of the House, especially the Democratic members of the House, to vote "no" on this amendment.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, being one of the sponsors of the bill, I feel called upon to answer the gentleman from Philadelphia as to why I have changed my mind.

He has made what I consider improper references to persons having talked to the sponsors of the bill. Certainly, persons have talked to the sponsors of the bill. I have talked to the members of the Liquor Control Board and I have talked to divers persons throughout the Commonwealth.

I want to say to the membership of this House that one would imagine from the remarks of the gentleman from Philadelphia that the Commonwealth sends out persons who seek to grab hold of the six hundred dollars belonging to a licensee, and saying to that person, "Come to the Liquor Control Board and ask for a license." When a man pays six hundred dollars knowing that which he is going to receive for his six hundred dollars, the Commonwealth is not depriving him of anything. If I pay six hundred dollars to get a license, and I know that I do not have the right to sell by the bottle, I am not being defrauded by the Commonwealth. I get that which I pay for, no more and no less. It is a specious argument to say that the Commonwealth is robbing or defrauding or taking from the licensee something that he ought to have. Do you for one moment suppose that if we do not permit a licensee to sell by the bottle, that nobody is going to apply for a liquor license? The answer to that is that today when they do not have that right, there are more applications for liquor licenses than the Board grants. People do not invest money to suffer a loss. A licensee does not pay six hundred dollars unless he is making a profit, at least he does not renew his application for a license, and the argument is raised that the profit ought to go to the licensee. I say that the profit ought to go for old age assistance, the profit ought to go to the blind, and to the indigent of Pennsylvania, and that the sixteen and two-third percent profit that is paid out of the sale by the bottle rightfully belongs within the coffers of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, there to be used for the people who need it the most. I say there is a sufficient profit for those who indulge or engage in the business of selling liquor, and I believe that the opening of the stores will increase to the Commonwealth the revenue and will increase the profit to the Commonwealth, as experience has shown. Therefore, I ask the members of the House to vote down the amendments of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I wish to correct the statement made by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, in stating the license fee at six hundred dollars. I point out to the members of the House that on page 26 they will find that the license fee remains as it was heretofore, and that it varies from $150 to $600. I point out to the members of the House that this fee is the fee that has been charged heretofore to the licensee for the right to sell for consumption on the premises, and I have heard no great objection from the licensee as regards that particular fee. I also wish to point out to the members that the Liquor Control Board anticipates that in the event that that they retain control of the retail trade and are allowed to open the so-called one-man stores that the amount of business will increase from forty million dollars to seventy million dollars per year. I might add, that they believe that they can operate those stores for a cost of six and two-third percent of the sixteen and two-third percent discount granted to licensees saving ten percent which of course will go to the aged, and the blind.

I do particularly wish to resent the statement of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, when he states that Pennsylvania is going into the rum business. I point out to the members of the House that we are trying to keep the government in control and regulate the rum business and not go into it. I, therefore, ask that this amendment be defeated.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. SOWERS and Mr. SCHWARTZ, and were as follows:

So the question was determined in the negative and the amendment was not agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The amendment offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Section one, page 37, section 414, line 26, by striking out the word "five" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "two"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I will be very brief. The amendment provides for the reduction of the license fee from five hundred dollars to two hundred dollars. If anybody can make five hundred dollars a year selling wines to churches, he is a good one.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The amendments offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend section one, page 39, section 415, line 4 by striking out the word "thousand" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "hundred"

Amend Section 1, page 40, Section 415, line 2, by striking out the word "Pennsylvania"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the present license fee in the bill for an importer is one thousand dollars. The bill as it came out of committee provides for a tax of ten cents per case on goods imported into the Commonwealth. In view of the fact af the extra tax per case, it seems to me that the license fee of the importer of one hundred dollars is sufficient.

Now, the object of the two amendments is to encourage home manufacture. At the present time the Liquor Control Board purchases seventy-five percent of its supply from manufacturers without the State, and possibly forty percent of its supply from Canada. It is my belief, and I ask you to vote accordingly that they ought to patronize the distillers of Pennsylvania in preference to those of Canada and I ask you to vote "aye" on this amendment.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were not agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The amendments offered by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Sproul, will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 1, page 39, line 3, by striking out the brackets before and after the word "hundred" and strike out the word "one" and insert in lieu thereof "five"

Amend sec. 1, page 39, line 4, by striking out with heavy-faced brackets the word "thousand"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have taken this floor before in the interest of the Pennsylvania business men. I am interested that the Pennsylvania business men be not placed at a disadvantage with those of other states and should be somewhere on an equal basis of competition. There are a number of importers in Pennsylvania who are somewhat handicapped by reason of the fact that their local markets are afforded to the monly by sales to the State Liquor Control Board. Any increase in license fee is only a further handicap, as importers of other states can then take advantage of it by lower license fees. The only reason for any importer's license in Pennsylvania is to control and bring into the state any whiskey in bulk, which will be blended or bottled and sold as such. Therefore, I believe that the license fee should only be nominal and that the Pennsylvania importers should not be placed at a disadvantage in comparison with those of other states. I ask the members of the House to support this amendment.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER declared the nays appeared to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for, fifty-eight members having voted in the affirmative, and seventy-five in the negative the question was determined in the negative and the amendments were not agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The amendments offered by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Sproul, will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 1, page 39, line 15, by striking out with heavy-faced brackets, the words "Every importer shall pay"

Amend sec. 1, page 39, lines 16 to 29, by striking out with heavy-faced brackets all of said lines, both inclusive

Amend sec. 1, page 40,, lines 1 to 6, by striking out with heavy-faced brackets all of said lines, both inclusive

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I ask you to vote "aye" on this amendment, because the distillers, rectifers and importers without the state can ship in without paying the ten cent fee, whereas the Pennsylvania importer has to pay the ten cent fee. I see no reason why we should impose that differential on the Pennsylvania business men, and again I ask you to support this amendment.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER declared the nays appeared to have it.

Whereupon a division was called for, fifty-one members having voted in the affirmative, and sixty-two in the negative, the question was determined in the negative and the amendments were not agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The amendment offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Section 602, par. 1, page 46, line 6, by striking out the words "original cost", and inserting in lieu thereof the words "actual value".

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The second section and title were separately read and agreed to as follows:

Section 2 The board shall have power to extend existing licenses granted under the act to which this is an amendment for such period of time as to it may appear proper and to provide for the payment of license fees for such period on the schedule of fees provided in this act in order to put into effect the system of staggered license dates provided for in this act and shall have power to terminate such extensions in any licensing district at any time when arrangements have been completed and licenses issued in such district

An Act to reenact and amend the title and the act approved the twenty-ninth day of November one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws fifteen one thousand nine hundred thirty-three one thousand nine hundred thirty-four) entitled "An act to regulate and restrain the sale importation and use of certain alcoholic beverages conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board the Department of Public Instruction other officers of the State government courts and district attorneys authorizing the establishment and operation of State stores for the sale of such beverages not for consumption on the premises and the granting of licenses subject to local option to sell such beverages for consumption on the premises forbidding importation or bringing of such beverages into the State except as herein provided prohibiting certain sales or practices in connections with and transactions in such beverages by licensees and others making disposition of the receipts from State stores and of license fees and imposing penalties" by extending the provisions of said act to the manufacture and possession of alcoholic beverages permitting licensees to sell malt or brewed beverages for consumption off premises providing for the revocation and suspension of licenses by the board and conferring additional powers on the board conferring power on agents of the board to arrest on view without warrant and to confiscate property unlawfully used and providing for the destruction and disposition thereof providing for the disposition of license and filing fees providing that fines and penalties collected shall be for the use of counties further regulating the manufacture sale and traffic in alcoholic beverages and prescribing penalties

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Amend section one, page 11, section 5, line 5 by striking out the words "Two hundred and eighty-eight" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "Thirty-six"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the amendment presented is very trivial and yet important. The distributor can only sell a box or a case under the bill. There ought to be provisions for the distributor who runs a neighborhood establishment and sells cold beer, to sell three bottles, and the amendment permits such a distributor to sell three bottles of beer at one time. I would ask you to vote for the amendment.

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it was the thought of the sponsors of the bill that a distributor is really a wholesaler and should not cut into the business of the retailer. We therefore made it so that the distributor was unable to sell less than one case of beer, which is twenty-four pints. If you adopt this amendment, you will have the distributor cutting in on the retailer. I ask the members of the House to vote "no" on this amendment.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were not agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The amendment offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Section one, page 31, section 19, line 11 by striking out the words "Four hundred ($400.00)" and inserting in lieu thereof "Two hundred ($200.00)"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The second and third sections and title were separately read and agreed to as follows:

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

Section 3 The act approved the nineteenth day of February one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six (Pamphlet Laws sixteen) entitled "A Supplement to the act approved the twenty-seventh day of March one thousand nin hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws thirty-four) entitled "An act concerning alcoholic liquors prohibiting the manufacture advertising furnishing traffic in and possession of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes and articles and substances designed or intended for use in the manufacture thereof defining intoxicating liquor providing for penalties forfeitures and the abatement of nuisance sand repealing existing alcoholic liquor laws and alcoholic liquor license laws' providing for the registering of federal permits also regulating under permit through a Pennsylvania Alcohol Permit Board created in the Department of Welfare the manufacture production distillation development use in manufacture denaturization redistillation recovery reuse holding in bond holding in storage by bailees for hire sale at wholesale and transportation for hire of any alcohol or alcoholic liquid by certain persons also providing for fees and the disposition thereof also authorizing the inspection of the records of permittees and purchasers of said alcohol or alcoholic liquid also declaring certain places nuisances and providing for their abatement also providing penalties and also repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act" and the amendments thereto are hereby repealed in so far as the same relate to the manufacture transportation and sale of malt and brewed beverages and malt liquors.

SPECIAL ORDER ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 1911

The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House the special order of business fixed for this time, House Bill No. 1911, Printer's No. 1142.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1911, entitled:

An Act permitting licensing regulating and controlling horse racing and betting and wagering on such races creating a State racing commission with jurisdiction over the same defining its powers and duties imposing certain license fees and State taxes providing penalties providing for referendums to ascertain the will of the electors with respect to horse racing and wagering thereon and making an appropriation

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would like to know why this House always insists that I come to the microphone. You allow everybody else to speak from his seat and every time I attempt to do so you call me to the microphone. Maybe it is a joke to you, but why do you not extend this joke to somebody else besides McCreary?

I do want to rise to ask for a few moments' time to oppose this bill. This bill has some peculiarities about it that I think makes it no more than proper that the members of this House have a chance to discuss it before they are ready to vote "yes" or "no."

This bill, I am told, is a merger or combination of three others, three bills each introduced by a different member. Therefore, as long as we are talking about horses, I don't think it would be unparliamentary to say that this bill has three sides, and if so, then to continue horse parlance it must be a mongrel or at least a hybrid. The only thing that I know in the horse line that is a hybrid is a mule. Then the name "horse" in this bill is wrong and should be omitted and the word "mule" substituted for it. Then it would read "mule racing" instead of "horse racing," and then it would be a joke indeed.

All joking aside, members of the House, this bill is too important to even joke that much. I wish every member of this House could read an article in the Saturday Evening Post of June 8th by a man named Bryant Field under the title of, "The Betting Boom," and I venture to assert that if every member of this House would take time to read this article there would not be one member out of ten who would vote "aye" on this bill, because this man treats this subject from an entirely non-political phase and gives you the actual facts in the case and tells you that since 1932 there is a betting boom sweeping over this country that in a very short time is going to develop into something like the stock boom that ravished this country a few short years ago, and was one of the major causes of one of the worst depressions that the Nation has known. Whether or not we will ever recover from it is still a moot question.

Now, we are apparently starting into another kind of boom. This man calls it a betting boom. He says that the results will be just as devastating as the stock boom. Now, why the members of this House take up and consider this bill that has these danger signals in it is more than I can understand. This man goes on to tell you that in Connecticut where the Legislature has just passed a bill legalizing racing the Governor vetoed it and gave as his reason, "The full intent and purpose of this bill is simply to enrich the few and impoverish the many."

He tells you that in the last few years there have been more than five hundred million dollars squandered in betting, in horse race propositions, and that the state of Rhode Island, the smallest state in this Nation, made over two million dollars profit on their horse racing proposition. They pay a certain portion of that to the State and the promoters pocketed one million five hundred thousand dollars in that little state of Rhode Island, and in return for that one million five hundred thousand dollars they gave not one thing in return, and they took money from the pockets of the small man. The largest part of the betting is done in pool rooms, barber shops and restaurants and it is simply a disgrace to any state or any nation to legalize what is known as daylight robbery.

Now, I cannot understand why the members of this House would seriously consider this kind of a bill and place the stamp of legality on this kind of a proposition. We are now vainly trying to work out of a depression that was largely brought on by just such a craze of betting on stocks, and we are now asked to start the same kind of a craze in betting on horses.

I was here at the public hearing, and I heard all the reasons advanced in favor of this bill, that it was the sport of kings, that it improved horseflesh, and the propagandists tell you that the farmers are going to benefit by the sale of thousands of dollars worth of oats and hay for these race horses.

They also tell you that the farmers are going to raise these race horses and sell them, and then they are going to get five per cent of the money that comes in when these horses win. Just think of the money that is going to roll in—five per cent that the farmers are going to get. Don't they know that the service of a race horse that is worth anything is more than five hundred dollars up to one thousand dollars and there is not a farmer in Pennsylvania that has the five hundred dollars, so the matter of making a profit out of this is the most farfetched thing that I have heard at any time or anywhere.

Members of this House, why do we dally with this kind of thing. The papers are full of the fight that has gone on regarding this bill. They tell you that all parties are disregarded and they tell you that it is for the benefit of farmers, and they cover it up with the excuse that the State will gain revenue paid by these races. They charge one thousand dollars a day for racing running horses, two hundred dollars a day for trotting horses and fifty dollars a day for the country fair, and they prophesied an immense amount of money coming into the treasury of this State, but they do not tell you where this money is coming from. It is coming out of the pockets of the people largely who can least afford to bet and take a chance, but because the State of Pennsylvania legalizes it and because it becomes a craze, they spend money that they should spend on their own families to buy food and clothing. Instead of that they will risk their money on a race track, and somebody in the back of a pool room or a barber shop or restaurant is their agent, and the chances against them are ten hundred fifty to one.

The Irish Sweepstakes took out of this country many millions of dollars and returned some of it to but a few people, but it excited the interest of many of the people, but they will tell you that the chances of winning on the Irish Sweepstakes are one to thirty-five hundred. Do the people of this State want to take those chances?

Members of the House, do not forget Calvin Coolidge's message, that men elected or appointed to public office, charged with the duty of maintaining the state's welfare and the peace of the people never have a right to be for the things that are absolutely harmful to the people of that state or of the Nation.

I beg of you to consider well before you foist this kind of a law on the people of this State. I ask you to vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I intend to vote for this bill and I intend to vote for it for one reason; not because I believe that pari-mutuel betting is necessarily a good thing for Pennsylvania, but I do believe in the sovereign right of the people to express themselves in a referendum on questions of this nature. I am willing to let the people of the Commonwealth decide this question for themselves.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 1, page 1, line 4, by striking out the word "sixty" and insert in lieu thereof "one hundred"

Amend sec. 1, page 1, line 5, by striking out the figures "($60,000,000)" and insert in lieu thereof "($100,000,000)"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I realize that it is twelve-thirty A. M. standard time, and there are a lot of us who get up on daylight savings time in the morning, and we want to get through as soon as possible, but this, I think you all will agree is one of the most important bills before this House at this session. It is the appropriation bill for unemployment relief. The bill before you provides an appropriation of sixty million dollars. The amendment is to increase that appropriation to one hundred million dollars for the year.

The bill as drafted, I think most of you know, applies to one year only and is not for the biennium, and the amendment likewise will apply for only one year.

The reason for making this amendment is that it is generally recognized by those familiar with the problem that funds for unemployment relief are grossly inadequate. The food vouchers were fixed at a time when prices were about forty per cent lower than they are at the present time. Food costs have gone up but the size of the vouchers to the unemployed has not been increased.

The investigation in Berks County has brought out the fact that the food vouchers at the present time are very insufficient. They recently had an investigation of food prices in various parts of the state, and the only way they could bring them within the vouchers that are being allowed was to cut down drastically on the amount of the food allowed to the unemployed. They took what was termed a restricted diet gotten out by the Department of Agriculture at Washington and then proceeded to cut the most important items such as milk, bread, butter, meat—cut those items so drastically as to make it virtually impossible for the unemployed family to exist upon the amounts that are allowed.

I could take a great deal of time discussing the inadequacy of the food vouchers, but I don't want to impose upon the good nature of the members of the House even on such an important matter as this, but I do want to urge upon you that the present vouchers are inadequate and that the only way that they can be increased is by an increased appropriation by this Legislature.

Not only are the food vouchers inadequate; the allowances for rent are also very inadequate,—they are figured on a monthly basis of one twelfth of twice the taxes. In our investigation in Berks County I took care to go into this matter, and I asked the Director of Rent Relief to give us an idea of the least amount of increase in this allowance that would made it possible for them to obtain housing for the unemployed, and he said if it were increased fifty per cent so that the payment to the landlords would be one-twelfth of three times the taxes that he thought that they could make it go. As it is at the present time when a family is evicted, he testified that in not more than two cases out of one hundred is it possible to find another house for them, with the result that they are taken over by the poor board, go to the poorhouse, the children are taken out of school and everything that goes with it. That is the sort of thing with which the unemployed are confronted.

I could take up more time,—I could take up each item of the unemployment relief and demonstrate to this House how inadequate it is. I only wish that as an experiment some of those who are opposed to increasing this appropriation would try to live with their families upon the amounts that are allowed. For instance a family of eight is allowed seventy cents a week for gas for cooking, which if you figure it out amounts to about three dollars a month, and if your family can get along with eight in the family for three dollars a month for gas for cooking and hot water, you must be experts. It certainly cannot be done, particularly where the unemployed are compelled in many instances to buy raw food in order to save, thereby cooking more than the ordinary family would. It cannot be done on the allowance for gas. The allowance for clothing is fifty cents per week per person. Would you like to try to clothe your family on that allowance? I don't think you would. I don't think any of you for a minute think it can be done; it can not.

Every investigation has indicated that this appropriation is too low. Now, my friends, if this were purely a charitable proposition, you might be justified in saying, "Oh well, what does it matter?" But here we are dealing with involuntary unemployed, men who are willing and anxious to work, who are able to work, who, if you would give them a chance at a job, would gladly take it, and glady earn enough to keep their families in decency. But we say, "No, we don't have any jobs for you so that you can get along in decency." If that is the case, it is up to us to find the jobs for them or give them enough to keep them on a decent standard of living. I therefore ask the members of this House to vote "aye" on the amendment.

Mr. Speaker, I ask for a roll call.

Mr. WESTRICK. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to agree with the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, that this is a very serious proposition. Let us not forget that not only the unemployed are suffering, but those who pay the taxes and pay the bills are suffering in this State as well. I fully realize, members of the House, that the great problem of this session has been the means of raising the funds that are required to carry on. That is my first objection to the amendment offered by my friend, Mr. Hoopes. I fully realize that the Federal government has agreed to provide sufficient money to carry on the relief provided this state will furnish five million dollars a month. That is why the sixty million dollar figure was arrived at.

We also realize that our unemployed are on the increase. The unemployment in most of the counties is on the decrease, therefore I can see no just reason for this sum to be increased, and therefore, I ask you to give due consideration to this matter and to vote down this amendment.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. HOOPES and Mr. YOURISHIN and were as follows:

So the question was determined in the negative and the amendments were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The second section was read and agreed to as follows:

Section 2 The State Emergency Relief Board shall make allocations from time to time out of the monies appropriated to it among the several counties of this Commonwealth for work relief and direct relief on the basis of need and payments shall be made under such system of requisitioning and accounting as the Governor Auditor General and State Treasurer shall determine

The third section was read as follows:

Section 3 The money so allocated to a county over and above the sum set aside by the State Emergency Relief Board for work relief shall be available for expenditure in that county for direct relief for the unemployed who are without means of support through such agencies as shall be designated by the State Emergency Relief Board and under such rules and regulations as the board shall adopt

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Section 3, page 2, line 17, by inserting after the word "adopt" the following: "All direct relief shall be paid to those entitled in the form of cash"

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this amendment won't cost you anything so maybe you will give it more consideration than the one that you just had. This amendment provides for the payment of direct relief in cash. That is a principle which is advocated by those who are administering relief; it is endorsed by the organizations of the unemployed unanimously throughout the state, for the reason that it will improve the morale of the unemployed; it will permit them to determine how their money is to be spent, and what items they are to be permitted to go without and what ones they are to have.

In addition, those in charge of the administration assure us that it will cost less to administer cash relief than it will to distribute in kind, as it is at the present time.

At the special session of nineteen thirty-four, I introduced a resolution in favor of cash relief, which was adopted by the House, by an overwhelming vote, but then when it came to drafting the appropriation bill, they didn't put it in. I hope this House will be more consistent. I didn't introduce a resolution at this time, but I have heard many of the members of this House expressing themselves as being in favor of distributing relief in cash, and in view of the fact that it is cheaper and that it is better for the unemployed, and the unemployed want it, and those who are distributing relief want it, and the further fact that it won't cost you more, but may cost less, because it will reduce the cost of administration, I can see no good reason why this House should not vote in favor of distributing relief in cash.

Mr. Speaker, I ask for a roll call.

Mr. WESTRICK. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I will speak just one moment to explain my position. Our good friend, Mr. Hoopes, believes in cash relief. We believe in relief, but we also believe in work relief as well. If you believe as I do you will vote "no" on these amendments.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Westrick.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Westrick, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WESTRICK. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, did I understand the gentleman to say in answer to my argument that he believed in work relief as well as cash relief?

Mr. WESTRICK. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOOPES. I would like to ask, Mr. Speaker, just what that remark has to do with the argument on this particular amendment?

Mr. WESTRICK. Mr. Speaker, if you will read on page two, section two, you will find that it provides: "This money shall be allocated from time to time out of the moneys appropriated to it among the several counties of this Commonwealth for work relief and direct relief on the basis of need and payments shall be made under such system—"and so forth. If cash relief is to be used, then the work relief proposition would be eliminated, as I see it.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Cambria, if he understood the amendment.

Mr. WESTRICK. Mr. Speaker, I think I did.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to call attention to the gentleman, from Cambria, Mr. Westrick, and to the members of the House, that the amendment reads, "All direct relief shall be paid in cash." It doesn't in any wise eliminate work relief and it applies only to direct relief.

I, too, believe in work relief, and was careful not to include in the amendment anything which would in anywise eliminate work relief. It only provides that direct relief be paid in cash, and does not apply to work relief at all. As a matter of fact, work relief at the present time is paid in cash.

Mr. WESTRICK. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the argument of the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, the board has that power at its discretion now and I do not know why this amendment should be necessary.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Cambria, I would like to say that the board had that power until last year when the act was specifically worded to provide cash relief, and the board at that time did not use cash relief, and I am afraid that they may not now, although practically everybody connected with the administration has said that they were in favor of it, and I don't want this Legislature to be put on the spot further with the unemployed. Let us decide definitely whether we are in favor of direct relief or not, and if we are in favor of direct relief, let us distribute it in cash, then there will be no doubt what we mean.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House. I would like to interrogate someone on this question, and, therefore, I ask the members of the House if there is anyone who can answer it. The problem as I see it and as I recall the situation, the question is not so much whether we are in favor of cash or direct relief paid in cash, but whether the Federal government does not provide does not stipulate, that it shall be paid in other than cash.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I will be glad to be interrogated on that point.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I will ask Mr. Hoopes that question

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the question I would like to point out to the gentleman that we are now distributing federal funds in cash relief in Philadelphia and in Pittsburgh, and that the reason that they are not paying cash relief in other parts of the state, as given by the State Emergency Relief Board, is that the present appropriation from the state forbids the use of state funds for cash relief.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, that doesn't seem to answer the question. I asked whether the Federal government doesn't stipulate and require the distribution of direct relief in other than cash.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman, I would say that the Federal government has no such restriction upon Federal funds as is demonstrated by the fact that Federal funds are being distributed in direct relief in both Philadelphia and Pittsburgh.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, whether his answer to my question is based on the fact that direct relief in cash is distributed in Philadelphia and one or two other centers or on his knowledge of the requirements of the Federal government?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman I will answer that it is based upon both. I happen to know as to the requirements of the Federal government, that there is nothing in the regulations of the Federal government that prohibits the payment in cash, and the further fact which would seem to me to be the best argument that the Federal funds are being so distributed now.

Mr. EROE. Mr. Speaker, as a member of the Joint Committee to investigate relief in Pennsylvania, I believe that practically every head of the emergency relief, and the previous head of the emergency relief have advocated cash relief. The over-head, the administration of the emergency relief board ran tests, particularly chosen from the relief roll. Many of them are not in need of relief. Today relief is administered practically the same as cash. An order is given for groceries, and order is given for shoes, and order is given for rent and an order is given for clothes. This is a duplication of the work and it would materially cut down the administration of relief if it were administered in cash.

I wish the members of the House would vote for the amendment.

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am surprised that there is no defense of the law as it stands.

I don't know how it is in Philadelphia or how it is in Pittsburgh, but I know in our district a great many of the people who are on relief are there because they could not manage their own affairs. There are many of them who are there through nothing but misfortune, no fault of their own, but there are a great many others who use the cash they get to buy liquor and go to shows and a lot of other things in preference to furnishing food and clothing and then paying their rent.

It is conceivable that federal funds are to be dispensed from the huge appropriation that has been made will furnish a lot of food in this Commonwealth and the desire to get the cash is one of the greatest incentives to urge men to seek work. It is only natural that people who receive relief would vote unanimously in favor of getting cash. Who wouldn't? It is only natural that paymasters who distribute these funds would take the easiest method of doing so, but those of you who want to be sure that the people who need food and who need clothing and who need housing, get that need supplied rather than their parents getting cash, will vote against these amendments.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Vol. 18. HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, JUNE 11, 1935 No. 74

SENATE

TUESDAY, JUNE 11, 1935.

The Senate met at 12 o'clock noon.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

PRAYER

Impress upon the members of this Senate, O God, a sense of responsibility. Responsibility to Thee, to those who have placed them in their present positions in this body, to their Commonwealth and to their Nation. May all their deliberations, debates and final enactments be well-pleasing unto Thee, the author of all good law—then shall the responsibility to constituents be rightly discharged and the best interests of State and Nation be conserved.

No man is wise enough to decide such serious issues as arise in this chamber by means of his own wisdom. Give to these men, O God, Thy counsel. Grant that each of them may hearken unto Thee. Thus may they be oblivious to criticism and possess that greatest of blessings, a clear conscience.

We ask this for Thy name's sake. Amen.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, and members of the Senate, during the week prior to May 15th an agreement was entered into between the Republican members of the Senate and the Governor of the Commonwealth that certain tax bills would be passed in order to meet the requirements of the Federal Government for five million dollars each month to be paid for relief. I hold in my hand a newspaper clipping which was printed at that time and which states that what the fiscal compromise provides are the new taxes by which Governor Earle and the Republican Senators agreed to raise sixty million dollars for next year.

It then outlines the seven bills which were then on the Senate calendar, and which bills were passed. There remain three bills which have not as yet been passed, but which must be passed in order that the Senate of Pennsylvania may fulfill the terms of that agreement.

I do not think, Mr. President, and gentlemen of the Senate, that that agreement should be set aside after negotiations and repeated conferences lasting for many weeks. This was an agreement which was entered into, and in order that there may be no question whatever that further demands be made upon this Legislature for unemployment relief in order that the demands of the Federal Government be complied with, lest the penalty be exacted that relief be cut off in Pennsylvania, I take the position that this bill should be brought to a vote. One of these bills has for many legislative days been on the postponed calendar of this Senate.

In the interest of the people of this Commonwealth and in order that this Senate may register its vote on this bill, which it has been agreed both by the Republicans and by Democrats shall be passed, I now call up from Bills on Third Reading Postponed for the Present, on page 18 of today's Calendar, House Bill No. 2853, Senate No. 1429, commonly known as the State tax upon bank checks.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, a few weeks ago I took occasion to remind this body that there had been an agreement entered into with the Government on certain taxes to provide money for relief, and I insisted that that program be carried out. I am still of the same mind. However, if taxes can be substituted for the ones agreed upon, and there can be a mutual agreement on some other taxes that will weigh less on the people of Pennsylvania, and will not hamper business, I am perfectly willing to substitute some other taxes that will bring the required amount.

I speak now of this particular tax—the check tax. At the time this was agreed upon—both this and the mercantile tax—it was done with great reluctance; it was felt that it might interfere with the banks of the State. I am ready and willing to vote for it if it is insisted upon being voted on today, but I am also perfectly willing to submit to any agreement to substitute any other tax for the check tax; but if the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, insists upon our voting on it, I am perfectly willing to carry out my part of the agreement. I know we made an agreement on that at that time. I also know that there was no agreement at that time to deliver thirty-one Republican votes. I know it was the consensus that there would be enough votes to pass these tax bills.

Now then, we made that agreement, and the Republican Party cannot further injure their chances by refusing to meet it. I know the purpose today may be to defeat these taxes; but what would be the result? If this tax is defeated, then the relief program is that much short. If they desire, they can leave this on the postponed calendar and substitute some other tax for it, and I will be glad to vote for it; but if it comes up for vote today I want to remind the Republican Party that they have pledged themselves to the Governor of Pennsylvania and made an agreement with their colleagues on the Democratic side, and this is not the time to be breaking agreements.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I want it to be distinctly understood that I have no intention of breaking the agreement. I intend to vote "aye" on this bill.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I believe that agreements can be changed by mutual consent. At a meeting of the Committee of Finance last evening it was agreed that the committee should meet with the Governor today to consider two substitutes for this bill. I would like to see action postponed at this time, and I ask the members of the Senate to defeat this motion to consider this bill at this time.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, will state his point of order.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, the bill is not properly before the Senate unless a motion is made that the Senate proceed to the consideration of this bill; and that motion must be made and passed before the bill may be considered.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, just called the bill up; there was no seconder.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, during my experience, both in the House and in the Senate, I have repeatedly heard bills called up from the postponed calendar without any motion; I have never heard a motion made to call up a bill from the postponed calendar. I would like a ruling from the Chair as to whether such motion is necessary.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Dauphin is right; if there are no objections when the bill is called up, the Senate will proceed to the consideration thereof. There was no objection, as I recollect, made to the calling up of the bill by the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, on the question of this bill I should like to say I have listened with great interest to statements by a number of my colleagues in the Republican Party that there was an agreement with the Governor. I have tried to maintain a consistent position here in regard to providing taxes for relief, whether there be an agreement with the Governor or not. Some of the very gentlemen who were speaking on the question of an agreement with the Governor have voted against all tax bills proposed here—whether suggested by the Governor or by the Republicans. I think the Republicans in Pennsylvania today are engaged in the very interesting job of writing a platform for the Democratic Party; and I do not propose to participate in that. I do not think that the Republican organization was wise in suggesting new taxes. This is one of the new taxes that were not suggested by anybody but the Republican organization. It is one of those I propose to vote against, whether suggested by either party or accepted by either party,—and for the reason that it is going to work a great hardship against institutions in Pennsylvania, and hurt business. I know of one institution in Pennsylvania which will be affected to a very great extent by such attacks; it writes out eighteen or twenty thousand checks every two weeks for its payroll, and at two cents a check the tax would amount, in round figures, to something like $2,236 every two weeks. I know that the actuaries of that company or the so-called controllers, are going to figure out ways and means of saving their company the $53,000 that would cost them in a year. That money is all going to be diverted to other States. I think it is a bad time to pass any relief bills like this, which would simply be adding fuel to the fire that we ourselves have started.

If it is in order, Mr. President, I now move that further consideration of this bill be postponed.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I second that motion.

The PRESIDENT. The bill is now on the postponed calendar. Is there a seconder to the motion of the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, that the Senate do now proceed to immediate consideration of the bill?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I second the motion of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. The motion of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, is not in order, because the parliamentary position now is that the bill is on the postponed calendar.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his point of order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I call attention to the fact that there was no proper motion before this body.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair has asked if there is a seconder to the motion made by the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the bill.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I say at the time I made my motion there was no second. Therefore, I insist upon my motion that this bill remain upon the postponed calendar.

The PRESIDENT. That was not the motion you made.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, then I amend my original motion to the effect that it remain on the postponed calendar.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, will state his point of order.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, my point of order is: I called up the bill, and the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, seconded it.

The PRESIDENT. That motion is in order if the seconder is so recorded.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his point of order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I call the attention of the Chair to the fact that at the time I made my motion there was no seconding of the motion of the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair did not recognize the motion as being in keeping with parliamentary usage. The question is on the motion made by the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, seconded by the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, that we proceed to the consideration of Senate Bill No. 1429, House Bill No. 2853.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I would like to draw to the attention of the members of the Senate that there is a definite agreement in connection with this and other taxes, and there seems to be a possibility of a substitution that will be perfectly agreeable to practically everyone on both sides of this House as well as to the incumbent of the Executive Chair. Now, there is no sense, Mr. President, in trying—

RECESS

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now recess for five minutes.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I would like to amend the motion to read thirty minutes instead of five minutes.

The PRESIDENT. Will the maker of the motion agree to the amendment?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I agree.

The PRESIDENT. Will the seconder of the motion agree to the amendment?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I agree.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion as amended?

It was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

Th PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

When the Senate recessed we had under consideration a motion by the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, seconded by the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, with the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni, holding the floor. The Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni, will proceed.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I do not like to take issue with the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, on this or any other question; I think it is just a question of a difference of opinion, and while I respect his opinion very much I would appreciate it a great deal if he would withdraw that motion until a conference of this Senate and the Governor can confer upon it. I do not think that is asking very much; this is a very important piece of legislation; and it has always been my observation that two wrongs do not make one right. We made a mistake in reporting this bill from committee, but voting on this bill at this time, when there is very little to be gained by refusing a compromise, would be a second mistake, and I earnestly request the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, to withdraw his motion. Later, if this conference with the Governor does not result in an agreement, then I think it would be perfectly proper for the Senator from Dauphin to renew his motion, and for the Senate to agree to it. I make that request to the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, a conference has already been arranged with the Governor, and we are waiting for a time to be fixed. I join with the Senator from Luzrene, Mr. Sordoni, in requesting the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed to withdraw his motion for the present.

MOTION WITHDRAWN

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, in view of the statements made by the Senator from Luzerne. Mr. Sordoni, and the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, if the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, will agree to withdraw the second, I will agree to withdraw the motion. In doing so, however, I want to call attention to the nature of the agreement made, as I understand it, with respect to the check tax and the other ten taxes included in that agreement. It seems to me it was more of an agreement between the Republicans of the Senate and the Democratic Senators and the Governor. It was really a four-party agreement including those three and also the director of the Emergency Relief Administration at Washington, Mr. Hopkins, bcause we were reliably informed that after the agreement had been entered into Mr. Hopkins was informed of that agreement and gave his assent.

I am particularly interested, Mr. President, that there be no question whatever with regard to the attitude of the Administration at Washington. I had hoped that that agreement settled the question for this session, and I hope that the members of the Senate who will go into conference with the Governor will bear that in mind—that there be a clear understanding that by delaying action on the pending bill, the check tax, the arrangement which was entered into with Washington shall not be disturbed.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, agree as seconder to withdraw?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I am very reluctant in this matter because I have a high regard for the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, and, personally, I feel just as he does—that an agreement involves a promise, and to me a promise is something of a sacred thing. I regard a promise, whether it is made out of political consideration or any other kind of consideration—a promise when made ought to be kept; a promise to me is a solemn thing, and when this agreement or arrangement, whichever you want to call it, was made on these tax measures we caucused on both sides and it was brought to our attention and we promised to go along, we promised to contribute our vote towards the passage of that program; and I made that promise as a member of the Democratic caucus, and I intend to keep that promise, and I am going to be very reluctant when anything is sought to be done here that would tend to give the other side an opportunity to break away from that same promise. I do not know yet the nature of the withdrawal of the motion by my colleague from Dauphin County. May I interrogate my colleague?

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I will.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, does the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, withdraw his motion—that is, in its entirety—from further consideration?

The PRESIDENT. The parliamentary position of the bill was, that it was on the postponed calendar. The withdrawal of the motion leaves it in that position; the motion does not change the position.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, may I explain this: both the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, and I are fully in accord. Would it be possible for us to lay this motion on the table for the time being?

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I think that would be possible. It might be better, however, to withdraw the motion, as the President has suggested, and then the bill will remain on the postponed Calendar and may be called up at any time.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I am not worried so much about the bill that is on the Calendar but I am worried about this motion that has been made today; and I am reluctant to withdraw my second and have this motion then completely disposed of, whereas if I can lay it on the table for the time being—

The PRESIDENT. Might the Chair point out that laying the motion on the table does not change the situation at all; you can call it up from the table just as readily as you can call the bill from the Calendar.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, my answer to the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, would be that I would be opposed to any motion which would take this from the postponed calendar other than to call it up for action; and I think that is the Senator's thought.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, that is my idea.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, my purpose in withdrawing the motion was to have the bill retain its present position on the postponed calendar, from which it could be called up by any Senator at any time after the conference with the Governor.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I shall gladly withdraw my second to the motion.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair accepts the withdrawal of the motion.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, this is the creation of another special fund. For more than ten years we have tried to limit the creation of special funds, because every special fund is more or less a reflection on the intelligence of the legislative branch of the State Government. The Department of Forests and Waters has never had a special fund, and I do not see why they should have one now; they have gotten along very well so far on the General Fund.

Odered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 891, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation for the payment of unpaid expenses and bills incurred by the Senate Committee created to investigate the Public Service Commission.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Northampton, Mr. Roberts.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Northampton, Mr. Roberts, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I should inform you that we are now about to consider Senate Bill No. 891, which is a bill appropriating $16,612.06 for expenses of the Public Service Commission Investigating Committee. I would like to know how you arrive at $16.612.06 for the Public Service Commission Investigating Committee,—how you arrive at $16,612.06, and for what purpose this fund is to be used.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, this fund is to be used for the purpose of defraying the expenses of a commission that was appointed at a previous session to investigate the Public Service Commission. An appropriation, I believe, was made at the time and subsequently cut down by the Governor. The result was, different employees of the commission, including clerks and stenographers and investigators and auditors and attorneys failed to receive their salaries or the amounts that were due them; and I, for one, believe that it was an injustice to people who performed meritorious service and labored hard in behalf of the commission in the duties they were instructed to perform. Certainly they are entitled to their pay, when they were in reality employees of the State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to further interrogate the Senator from Northampton, Mr. Roberts.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Northampton, Mr. Roberts, permit himself to be interrogated further?

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, yes.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, may I be informed as to how this item is made up,—how much attorneys' fees and how much expenses of employees, or whether it is all attorneys' fees?

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, no, it is not all for attorneys. I do not have before me the list, but it covers a large number, quite a number, of employees,—as I said before, clerks, investigators, auditors, public accountants, and so on and so forth; and the work that they performed is still here and capable of use at any time by the Commonwealth for any further investigation that may be made at any future time.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I would like to vote for this bill—if I knew just what the $16,612.06 is for. I am at a loss to understand, and I haven't yet understood—and it is probably no fault of the Senator from Northampton—just where this money is to go; if I were to be informed it was to go to clerks and people who performed manual labor, and to what extent it would go to them, I might be able to vote intelligently on the bill.

Therefore, in order to explain the vote I will make on the bill, which will be "no", I make the statement that I shall vote "no" because I do not believe in paying large sums without knowing what the money is being paid for.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, included in the $16,612.06 would be fees for three very able attorneys. I know the one from Pittsburgh gave up a very good law practice to come to Harrisburg, and spent months of his time here. I know that the compensation he will receive will not compensate him for the time he lost and the splendid service he rendered. That also applies to other people—the gentleman from Northampton and the gentleman from Scranton. I know they are very able attorneys.

Now, the best part of this might be used for fees for these attorneys, but if all of this $16,612.06 were to be given to these three attorneys it would not nearly be compensation for the service they rendered. However, it does include compensation for the clerks, investigators and others, and the fee is very, very reasonable.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, there is one item for public accountants from Pittsburgh, who, for six weeks, went over the books of the public utilities. In order to do this they neglected their business back home, yet the bill they sent in was for $4,600. So this one item, I know, the attorneys will not get.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I arise and after wishing to express my thanks to the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, for his splendid eulogy of the legal profession, I want to call attention of the Senate also to another bill, on page 16 of the Calendar, Senate Bill No. 1535, sponsored by the Senator from Lancaster, Mr. Pierson, "An Act making an appropriation for the payment of unpaid bills incurred by the Senate committee created in one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one to investigate the Public Service Commission."

I would like to have some information as to what relation these bills have to each other. I should like to interrogate the Senator from Lancaster, Mr. Pierson.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Lancaster, Mr. Pierson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PIERSON. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I would like to ask whether this is a companion bill to Senator Roberts' bill—to apply to the payment for the same activity.

Mr. PIERSON. Mr. President, in answer to the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, this is an additional amount to be appropriated for stenographic services rendered the Rial-Earnest Committee.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, is this an appropriation to the same committee that the Senator Roberts' bill provides an appropriation for?

Mr. PIERSON. Mr. President, no.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I note that this committee sat in 1931. Is that correct?

Mr. PIERSON. Mr. President, that is correct.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, why did the Legislature of 1933 not make any appropriation for this purpose?

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, for the information of the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, I will state that I was on those committees, and we did pass bills to appropriate this money to pay them off, but Governor Pinchot vetoed them.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, what is this money for? Is this just for stenographers and clerks?

Mr. PIERSON. Mr. President, for stenographic services of a long period of time.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, what is the amount of them?

Mr. PIERSON. Mr. President, $8,342.00.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, the situation is becoming clearer and clearer, but I do not understand what becomes of that six cents; nobody understands that.

Mr. REED, read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1608 entitled:

An Act to amend article fifteen of the act approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (P. L. 103), entitled "An act concerning townships of the second class; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," by permitting such townships to establish special districts for the construction, operation and maintenance of drains and sanitary sewers, to assess costs of construction, operation and maintenance upon the properties benefited to issue bonds secured by municipal liens on such properties and to levy and collect taxes for the payment of principal and interest on indebtedness and for the meeting of costs of maintenance and operation from sewer rentals.

Which was committed to the Committee on Municipal Government.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. WOODWARD offered the following resolution which was twice read:

RESOLUTION URGING CONGRESS TO AMEND SECTION 5219 R. S. U. S. SO AS TO PERMIT STATES TO TAX SHARES OF NATIONAL BANKS UPON AD VALOREM BASIS

In the Senate, April 11, 1935.

Whereas, The several states are prohibited from taxing the property, income or shares of national banks except in the precise method prescribed by Congress (Section 5219 R. S. U. S.); and

Whereas, From 1866 to 1923 the only method by which Congress authorized the states to tax national banks was to tax upon their shares and during such period such shares were taxed by the states at the property rate, upon the same basis as the property of the farmer, merchants, manufacturer and home owner, thereby securing equality of the burden of taxation among all property owners; and

Whereas, Said Federal Statute provided that the rate of such tax should not exceed the rate imposed by the state upon other moneyed capital in the hands of individual citizens of the states invested in notes, bonds, and other evidences of debt (moneys and credits) coming into competition with the business of banking; and

Whereas, Beginning in 1921 and continuing down to the present time there have been rendered various decisions of the United States Supreme Court and other Federal and state courts, constructing the above limitation, the effect of which decisions has been to practically destroy the power of the states to tax the shares of national banks, it being manifestly impossible to classify such investments into those competing and those not competing with the business of national banks. It is also clearly evident that there is no similarity or relationship between shares in a national bank which have a right to share in the profits of a going business arising from the income from all the deposits in the bank as well as the capital invested in shares, and also to share in the income received from other activities of such bank and a debt evidenced by a note or bond, the income from which is limited to the interest provided therein. It is absurd to claim that for purposes of taxation such wholly different types of property should be treated precisely alike; and

Whereas, Although the Federal act in form permits states to tax the net income of banks or to levy a tax measured by or according to such net income, such method is entirely and wholly unjust, inequitable and inadequate. Because, first, when such method is used by a state it is in lieu of all other forms of taxation. Second, any such bank is entirely tax free unless it makes a net profit, whereas all other persons, owners of property, must pay a tax whether they make a profit or loss. This places the national banks in a privileged class and exempts them from paying any share of the public burdens during the period when they do not make a net profit, thus shifting their share of the tax burden upon other property owners. Third, in all the states where the net income, or measured by net income methods have been used, the shrinkage in taxes collected from banks have ranged from 66 1/3% to 90%, as compared to former tax collections under the share tax plan; and

Whereas, Because of the decisions of courts holding void taxes upon the shares of national banks the whole matter of taxing banks, both national and state, has been thrown into great confusion, many of the states have been persuaded to abandon the share method of taxing banks and have either adopted low millage rates of from three to five mills on the dollar of value of such stock, or have adopted the income tax, or measured by income tax methods, with the result that in the past ten years, the total tax of national banks have been reduced from $79,376,000 in 1922 to $48,080,000 in 1932, notwithstanding the fact that during such period the total capital and surplus of such banks increased from $2,356,427,000 to $2,828,408,000, and thus during a period when taxes have increased upon all other forms of property and for all other persons, banks have secured reductions; and

Whereas, In March, 1927, the Supreme Court of the United States held bank taxes in Minnesota to the amount of approximately $1,200,000 void because the rate was higher than the rate on moneys and credits and the legislature at once established the Minnesota Bank Tax Commission for the purpose of obtaining such an amendment to the Federal law as would permit this and other states to tax bank stock upon its value as other property is taxed; said Commission has in all practicable ways endeavored to secure such amendment by enlisting the cooperation of all other states and other taxing officials, by appearing before committees of the Senate and House of Representatives of Congress of the United States, by attending national tax conferences by correspondence with tax officials of all other states and by conferences with them and otherwise; and

Whereas, Through the efforts of the said Commission and the tax officials of other states bills have been introduced at every session of Congress providing for the necessary amendments to said Federal act, and by reason of the lobby maintained by the American Bankers Association, all efforts to obtain such legislation have been unsuccessful. However, in June, 1934, the Banking and Currency Committee of the House of Representatives reported favorably upon a bill introduced by Mr. Steagall, Chairman of said Committee, which bill would grant to the states all the relief required. Said report is an unanswerable argument in favor of restoring to the states the power to tax bank shares upon an equitable basis, the same as they were taxed for nearly 60 years; and

Whereas, Bills identical with the so-called Steagall Bill have been introduced and are now pending in the Congress of the United States, and it is of the utmost importance that all of the states join in the effort to secure the passage thereof; therefore, be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that the Congress of the United States and the President of the United States are hereby respectfully and earnestly urged to so amend Section 5219 R. S. U. S., that the states may tax the shares of national banks upon the ad valorem basis with no other limitation thereof except that the rate be not greater than the rate imposed upon the shares of state banks; and, be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Commonwealth is authorized and directed to send copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, Vice President of the United States, Speaker of the House of Represntativs of the United States, and to each member of the House of Representatives from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; also to send a duly authenticated copy hereof to the presiding officer of each House of the Legislature of all the states in the Union, and to the chairman of the tax committees of each House thereof.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39 which requires that concurrent resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee be suspended and that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I object.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1588, on second reading entitled:

An Act to amend section two of the act approved the nineteenth day of September one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four (P. L. 7) entitled "An act transferring money from the Fire Insurance Tax Fund to the General Fund and providing for the subsequent return from the General Fund of the transferred money" by extending the time for the repayment of the amounts transferred.

be recommitted to the Committee on Finance for further study.

Mr. HARVEY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, Senate Bill 1588 is no different in character from the other bill extending the time for repaying the amount transferred. This particular bill refers to the transfer from the Fire Insurance Tax Fund. It should not be recommitted at this time. It is my hope that this bill will remain on the calendar and go on third reading tomorrow, when greater consideration can be given to it than at the present time.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, this bill is a very important bill, involving as it does, in my opinion, the integrity of the Fire Insurance Tax Fund, and I hope that this bill will be recommitted.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I would like to add my voice to the voice of the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, on behalf of the recommittment of this bill. The volunteer fire companies all over the State are now handicapped in their payments of compensation to indigent firemen on account of the failure of these funds to be remitted to them by the State, and I cannot too strongly urge upon this Senate the recommittment of this particular bill.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, these bills only extend the time when the money is to be returned. That does not necessarily mean that any money will be transferred from those funds, but it does extend the time for the return at the end of this biennium, which gives the Administration more leeway in meeting this particular situation at the present time.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, in answer to the Senator from Delaware, I want to say that earlier in this Session there was an effort made, in fact it was consummated, to transfer money from this fund. At the time I believe the hospitals were sorely in need of money, and also for the old-age pension. The firemen at the time were adverse to having the moneys taken from their Fund, because they said, and justly so, that the moneys in that fund were likewise being used for the relief of destitute families and indigent firemen, but yet they were willing, after a conference, that the fund be transferred, because they had assurance from different members of the Senate that the moneys would be returned to them later in the year; and now, if we are going to further extend the time in which these moneys are going to be returned to them, we are not keeping faith with the firemen, and I certainly believe we should not postpone the day of raising money to properly take care of our finances and without going to the extreme of further robbing the funds of the firemen.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, whether he, or any other member of the Finance Committee, has communicated with the officers of the Volunteer Firemens' Relief Fund in regard to this bill?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, the officers of the volunteer firemen came to me today and said that they were opposed to the extension of the time for the repayment of the funds that had been transferred.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Delaware, McClure, whether it is not true that at the time this transfer was about to be made, together with a group of other transfers, I think it was the Senator from Northampton, Mr. Roberts, who stated that the officers of the Firemen's Relief Fund were willing that this transfer should be made, provided the fund would be repaid at the time stipulated in that transfer.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I do not know of any arrangement having been made with the volunteer firemen.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I remember distinctly that when this transfer was about to be made, of taking the floor, I think in answer to the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, and subsequently to the few remarks that were made at that time, the Senator from Northampton, Mr. Roberts, stated here on the floor that he had communicated with the officers of the State Firemen's Relief Fund and that they agreed that the transfer should be made provided the money be repaid or re-transferred on a particular date. Now, from my understanding of this bill that is now on the calendar on second reading, it seeks to extend that date, and I believe it certainly would be breaking faith if we now, in view of the statement by the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, that the officers have told him that they were opposed to a further extension of that date. We took the fund at that time, after the agreement had been made that the money would be re-transferred to the Volunteer Firemen's Fund on a particular date. Now, if we want to extend that date without their consent in my opinion, that is a breach of faith, and establishing a bad precedent. I hope that the members will vote to recommit this bill.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. REED (Dauphin) and Mr. THOMPSON (Centre), and were as follows, viz:

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Messrs. COAKLEY and Van SICKLE.

(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 166.

In the House of Representatives, June 10, 1935.

Whereas, The Federal Government has created a fund of $4,000,000 for the construction and acquisition of public works; and

Whereas, One of the most important steps in the field of public works is the acquisition and operation of water-works by municipalities; and

Whereas, The city of Easton faces a problem in the supply of water now furnished to the public in said city, and is desirous of purchasing existing private water-works now supplying water to the public of said city; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That the Federal authorities be requested to allocate from any Federal appropriations available for such purposes such sum or sums as may be necessary to enable the city of Easton to acquire the water-works and systems now supplying water to the public of said city, and that said sums be requested as outright grants.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Public Works Administration by the Chief Clerk of this House.

Referred to the Committee on Cities.

(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 167.

In the House of Representatives, June 10, 1935.

Whereas, The Federal Government has created a fund of $4,000,000 for the construction of public works to relieve unemployment; and

Whereas, The construction and operation of municipal employment, but as well is one of the desired steps in sewers and sewage treatment works not only relieves unpurifying th streams and relieving filtration plants of excess loads; and

Whereas, Because of the Constitutional limitation on its borrowing power, and the large amount of delinquent taxes, it is impossible for the city of Easton to complete the construction of its sewage system and the necessary sewage treatment works; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That the Federal authorities be requested to allocate from the Federal appropriation for public works, such sum or sums as may be necessary for the completion of the sewage system and sewage treatment works in the city of Easton, and that such sums be requested as outright grants to enable said city to proceed with these improvements.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Public Works Administration by the Chief Clerk of this House.

Resolved, That the committee shall make a report to the next House of Representatives [of this] when assembled in regular session [as early as possible]; and

Referred to the Committee on Cities.

By Mr. NAGEL. RESOLUTION No. 169.

In the House of Representatives, June 10, 1935.

Whereas, Associations and corporations generally known as Co-operative Agricultural Associations or Corporations of Producers of Farm Products are directly or indirectly marketing to consumers of farm products in this Commonwealth an ever increasing proportion of such products produced by the farmers of this Commonwealth, and

Whereas, A substantial number of the citizens of this Commonwealth are directly interested in the management, operation and supervision of such associations or corporations as members thereof, and

Whereas, the general public of the Commonwealth has an interest in the management, operation and supervision of such associations or corporations by reason of the fact that a substantial and ever increasing proportion of the agricultural products sold to the general public for consumption are marketed through such associations or corporations, and

Whereas, It is desirable that the present laws governing such associations or corporations be revised to provide for the more efficient management, operation and supervision of such associations or corporations in the interest of the members thereof and the general public, and

Whereas, Certain legislation has been proposed and is now pending before the Legislature designed to revise the existing law relating to such associations or corporations and it is desirable that legislation be enacted properly to revise the management, operation and supervision of such associations or corporations, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives is hereby authorized and directed to appoint a committee of five members of the House of Representatives, whose duty it shall be to investigate the operation of existing laws relative to the management, operation and supervision of Co-operative Agricultural Associations or Corporations of Producers of Farm Products, and to determine what, if any, changes or revisions should be made in such laws properly to provide for such management, operation and supervision of said association or corporations in the future, and

Resolved, That the committee shall make a report to the House of Representatives as early as possible either at this session, if feasible, or at the next special or general session of the House of Representatives, and

Resolved, That the said committee shall have the power to hold public or private hearings, and to audit the books and accounts of such Co-operative Agricultural Associations or Corporations of Producers of Farm Products as in the opinion of the committee it may deem necessary to effectuate the purpose of this Resolution and to effect the purpose of this Resolution the committee shall have the power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before it and to answer to such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of the said committee shall have the power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records, or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the law of the Commonwealth in such cases.

Referred to the Committee on Agriculture.

By Mr. EBERHARTER. (Concurrent). RESOLUTION No. 170.

In the House of Representatives, June 10, 1935.

Whereas, The National Government, in order to create employment designed, through natural development from temporary to permanent work, to bring about an eventual termination of the economic depression, is about to expend huge sums of public moneys in the construction of projects of general public benefit.

Whereas, Among these projects it is proposed to include a canal or water-way from Beaver, in the State of Pennsylvania, to Struthers, in the State of Ohio, at a total cost for construction alone of $37,000,000; or as an alternative, to construct, at a considerably greater expense, a water-way from Beaver to Lake Erie, at or near Ashtabula, Ohio, thereby joining the Ohio River with Lake Erie.

Whereas, The proposed canal from Beaver to Struthers would benefit almost exclusively the steel interests of Youngstown to the detriment of their competitors in western Pennsylvania, whereas the steel industry in Youngstown already enjoys a greater degree of prosperity than do the similar plants in Pennsylvania.

Whereas, The construction of any canal or water-way can only be undertaken by the use of a maximum amount of machinery which does not entail the employment of a commensurable number of workmen.

Whereas, The operation of either of the proposed water-ways, when completed, will not increase employment, but on the contrary will tend to materially decrease it. The facilities of water transportation will necessarily take from the railroads operating in the district, the larger part of their present freight haulings. The curtailment of railroad transportation will, in the case of the Beaver to Struthers canal alone, inevitably result in the dismissal of 3,000 or more railroad employes, and the cutting off of an annual wage roll of some $3.500,000, which will no longer find its way into the channels of trade.

Whereas, The number of men employed in the operation of a canal is negligible as compared with the number necessarily employed in the transportation by railroad of an equal volume of freight shipments.

Whereas, The decreased use of railroad facilities will greatly diminish the demand for steel by the railroads who are now one of the most extensive users of this product.

Whereas, The Beaver to Struthers canal would be used to a considerable extent for the transportation of coal to the Youngstown Steel Mills, thus lending impetus to the production of coal in the fields nearest the canal and its connecting water-ways, to the injury of coal fields enjoying only the facilities of railroad transportation, and thereby dislocating mining employment.

Whereas, The proposed water-ways do not conform to the requirements of correct public policy, and therefore do not constitute projects to be provided at the expense of the Federal Government. Th moneys proposed to be devoted to this project may more properly be expended in th elimination of grade crossings for the protection of lives and property; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania respectfully memorialize the President and Congress of the United States to disapprove the construction of both the proposed canal or water-way from Beaver to Struthers, and the proposed water-way from the Ohio River to Lake Erie, and to exclude them from the projects to be undertaken and to be paid for out of Federal funds; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Secretary of the Commonwealth to the President of the United States and to the presiding officers of the Senate and the House of Representatives of the United States.

Referred to the Committee on Forestry.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2831 (Senate Bill No. 39), entitled:

An Act for the protection of the health safety and welfare of women and minors in any occupation trade or industry except domestic service in private homes and farm labor and newspaper boys by regulating under the police power of the Commonwealth the minimum fair wage standards which shall be paid to such women and minors employed in trade and industries providing for wage boards to recommend the minimum fair wage standard for women and minors in any occupation defining the powers of and imposing duties on the Department of Labor and Industry and the wage boards imposing certain duties on employers of women and minors and requiring certain records to be kept and information to be furnished by them prohibiting contracts for and payment of less than the minimum wage standards and providing penalties

The first section was read and agreed to as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the employment of women and minors in trade and industry in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania at wages unreasonably low and not fairly commensurate with the value of the services rendered is a matter of grave and vital public concern for the following reasons

(a) Many women and minors employed for gain in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are not as a class upon a level of equality in bargaining with their employers in regard to minimum fair wage standards and "freedom of contract" as applied to their relations with their employers is illusory

(b) Since a very large percentage of such workers are obliged from their week to week wages to support themselves and others who are dependent upon them in whole or in part they are by reason of their necessitous circumstances forced to accept whatever wages are offered them

(c) Judged by any reasonable standard wages are in many cases fixed by chance and caprice and the wages accepted are often found to bear no relation to the fair value of the service rendered

(d) Women and minors employed for gain are peculiarly subject to the overreaching of inefficient harsh or ignorant employers and under unregulated competition where no adequate machinery exists for the effective regulation and maintenance of minimum fair wage standards the standards such as existed tend to be set by the least conscionable employers

(e) In the absence of any effective minimum fair wage rates for women and minors the constant lowering of wages by unscrupulous employers constitutes a serious form of unfair competition against other employers reduces the purchasing power of the workers and threatens the stability of industry

In view of the foregoing it is hereby declared that the evils of oppressive unreasonable and unfair wages, as they affect women and minors employed in this Commonwealth are such as to render imperative the exercise of the police power of the Commonwealth for the protection of industry and of the women and minors employed therein and of the public interest of the community at large in their health and well-being and in the prevention of the deterioration of the race

The second section was read as follows:

Section 2 The following terms shall be construed to have the following meaning except in those instances where the context clearly indicates otherwise

(a) "Secretary" shall mean the Secretary of Labor and Industry

(b) "Wage board" shall mean a board created as provided in section five of the act

(c) "Woman" shall mean a female of twenty-one years or over

(d) "Minor" shall mean a person of either sex under the age of twenty-one years

(e) "Occupation" shall mean an industry trade business or branch thereof or class of work therein in which women or minors are gainfully employed but shall not include domestic service in private homes or labor on a farm or newspaper boys lawfully engaged in the business of buying and selling exposing or offering for sale any newspaper magazine periodical or other publication

(f) "An oppressive and unreasonable wage" shall mean a wage which is both less than the fair and reasonable value of the services rendered and less than sufficient to meet the minimum cost of living necessary for health

(g) "A fair wage" shall mean a wage fairly and reasonably commensurate with the value of the service or class of service rendered In establishing a minimum fair wage for any service or class of service under this act the department and the wage board without being bound by technical rules of evidence or procedure may take into account all relevant circumstances affecting the value of the service or class of service rendered and be guided by like considerations as would guide a court in a suit for the reasonable value of services rendered where services are rendered at the request of an employer without contract as to the amount of the wage to be paid and may consider the wages paid in the Commonwealth for work of like or comparable character by employers who voluntarily maintain minimum fair wage standards

(h) "A mandatory order" shall mean an order the violation of which shall be subject to the penalties prescribed in section fifteen (b) of this act

(i) "Directory order" shall mean an order the nonobservance of which may be published as provided in section nine of this act

(j) "Employer" shall mean every person firm copartnership association or corporation who or which employs women or minors in any occupation as herein defined but shall not include the Federal government the Commonwealth or any county city borough incorporated town township or school district

(k) "Department" shall mean the Department of Labor and Industry of this Commonwealth

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Messrs. HOOPES and GEORGE E. DOWNEY offered amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments offered by the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 2, page 5, line 8, by striking out the word "fifteen" and insert in lieu thereof "sixteen"

Amend sec. 2, page 5, line 13, by striking out the word "nine" and insert in lieu thereof "ten"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to,

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The amendment offered by the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Downey, will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Section 2, on page 4, by inserting in line 12, after the word "homes", the following: "or newspaper boys lawfully engaged in the business of buying selling delivering exposing or offering for sale any newspaper magazine periodical or other publication."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the amendment before you is the one offered by the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Downey, to Senate Bill No. 39, House Bill No. 2831, Printer's No. 572, on page 4 to make an insertion to exempt newspaper boys from the provisions of this act. This is the minimum wage bill passed by the Senate, which has been amended by the Labor committee of the House and is now in the form in which that committee thinks it should remain.

I can see no good reason why newsboys should be exempted from a bill providing minimum, fair wage standards for minors and women. Of course in the case of newspaper boys, it applies to minors. I can see no good reason why newsboys should not be given the same protection in this regard as other employed minors. I, therefore, ask that you vote "no" on the amendment.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to support the amendment offered by the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Downey.

There probably might not be any reason why newspaper boys should be exempt if their method of employment and their methods of working were as they are in industry. However, that is not the case with newspaper boys. There are different methods by which papers are distributed by these boys. There are instances in which they buy the papers from the publisher and then go out and sell them as their own business, as their own engagement. In other cases they are employed on a commission basis by the publisher, and again, where you have probably in the same community two newspapers operating in the distribution one by one method and one by another, it would be unfair to attempt to legislate in a way that would be effective in each case. I know of no such proposed legislation in any of the states of the United States. This is the first time that a bill has been introduced in the Legislature of Pennsylvania, so far as I know, attempting to regulate the wages of newsboys. Personally I don't believe this provision is workable and I would ask the members of this House to vote in favor of the amendment.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, It would appear that there is an effort being made to chisel in on these newsboys not only in their hours of work but also in the compensation for their services, and I am of the opinion that that is entirely unfair and inhuman. I think that the thousands, ten thousands of capable, able bodied young men above the ages of fourteen sixteen and eighteen that are employed at this time would be glad to accept the job. There seems to be an influence that is trying to drive the little fellow out of the cradle into the field of economic struggle long before he is ready for it. I would ask the members of the House to be at least fair and human and vote down amendments of this type. Give the little fellow an opportunity. It is bad enough when he has to go to work as early as he does. Let us help him to develop physically and intellectually. I, therefore, ask you to vote down the amendment.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, the trouble with the gentleman from Beaver is that he has not taken the time to acquaint himself with any of the details of the newspaper distribution business.

If a newsboy were regularly employed for a stated number of hours over a stated period, there would probably be a justification, indeed there would be justification for saying that any regulations that applied to another workman in a similar occupation should apply to the boy, but when you have the newspapers outside of the metropolitan areas handled by boys who may deliver and handle from ten to thirty or sixty papers or sometimes employed to carry on routes, because the compensation from the sale of papers does not justify the boy in making the rounds on that route and the publisher desires to serve that territory and sometimes, as the gentleman on the other side has pointed out, the boy simply is his own merchant working on his own time and working because he wants to and because his parents want him to, then you have another proposition.

I make no apologies for insisting before this House that a boy is better off working a few hours each day, delivering papers or anything else, than when he is doing nothing, running around on a hoodlum basis with the other boys in the neighborhood. Were there any desire to exploit these boys, it would be an entirely different matter. A boy who stands on the corner hour after hour, as he does in the metropolitan centers presents one case. A boy is in and out of the distribution business in the course of two hours is an entirely different case, and it is only common sense, that the boy, who the gentleman from Beaver is so anxious to protect, should be given the opportunity to do a little useful labor and earn a little money as a self-employer or as an employed boy on his own account.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I can appreciate the statement made by my friend, the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, with reference to newsboys being employed in selling or peddling papers, but I would like to be shown by any member of this House where in this bill that is before the House now, it attempts to regulate the hours of anyone in industry. This bill is a minimum wage bill and sets up a board, and this board will say what is a fair wage for women and minors in the trades and industries. This bill does not interfere with the newsboy who is selling newspapers for two or four or five or ten hours, and if the board can say that a newsboy shall receive one or two cents, I don't see any objections to it and I do not believe the papers would have any objection to it. I think the statements as made by the gentleman from Cambria do not interpret this bill correctly. This bill does not pertain to newspapers, it does not pertain to hours. What it does pertain to is a fair minimum wage for women and minors in trades and industry. I ask the members of this House to vote down these amendments.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. HOOPES and Mr. CANNON.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I shall be very brief, because of the arguments either for or against this bill were made yesterday.

On the floor of this House, the general conversation is that House Bill No. 2437 should pass because it takes care of clubs. That is not a real and substantial reason why it should pass, because House Bill No. 919, as amended, will take care of clubs.

In opposition to this bill, let me call your attention to just two or three main points. First, if you are against the liquor store system, then you would naturally be against the extension of that system. This bill extends it. If you are against a bureaucracy, then you would necessarily be against this bill, because no bill could be written to give to a bureau more power than this bill gives.

Third, if you feel that three men sitting at Harrisburg two or three hundred miles away from a place are the proper ones to decide whose license may be suspended and whose license may be revoked and who may for a most trivial cause inflict a $2000 penalty on a licensee, then, of course, you would be for this bill. But if you think as I think, if you really think that someone at home is better able to decide those questions, then you would be against this bill.

The bill has many good features and the good features are meant to be the horses on which the bad features are to be carried over. For instance, you have the feature relating to the restaurant and the hotel reducing the floor space, reducing the chairs, and you have the feature eliminating the bars. Those features are merely the riders or the horsemen of this bill for the purpose of carrying the load of the bad features of the bill.

I would ask you, members of the House, to vote "no" on House Bill No. 2437 and to vote "aye" on House Bill 919, which carries with it all the good features of this bill and eliminates all the bad features of the bill.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if the bill before were the repeal of the entire liquor control system, I could very well understand the arguments advanced by my good friend from Philadelphia, but as was explained when the amendments were before this House, the control system is here to stay at least until the next session, and we are now debating the merits or demerits of the system as a whole. Since this system must continue we now have before us a bill that attempts to do away with the iniquities and to take care of the deficiencies of that system. The bill has many, many good features not mentioned by my friend which are not included in House Bill No. 919, which relates only to clubs. For those reasons and not wishing to take up the time of the House any further, I would ask the House to vote "aye" on this bill.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, supplementing the remarks of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, I wish to state to the members of the House that Bill No. 2437 contains within its pages the result of a complete and exhaustive study of the liquor system and the liquor question in Pennsylvania, and that above all it contains within its contents practically every recommendation the Liquor Control Board desired and wished in order to perfect the system now in Pennsylvania. The sole argument advanced by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, is a plea to go back to the Brooks high license law, back to a system that helped to create prohibition. It is for those reasons that I am asking the members of this House to vote for House Bill No. 2437 and not return to the old system.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

REASONS FOR VOTE

The following reasons for vote were filed on House Bill Nos. 2436 and 2437.

Mr. FINNERTY. Mr. Speaker, in voting "aye" on House Bills Nos. 2436 and 2437, I realize that there are some features that are not desired by me, but, since this bill is more in the nature of a codification of the liquor law, which of necessity must be in the form of a compromise, it cannot satisfy all parts affected. Therefore unless some measure is passed at this time we may not have any constructive legislation on the subject. These bills generally are far better than the present existing laws and should be enacted into law.

It is our desire to give the State Liquor Store System an extension of time and another trial. These bills are in the best interests of the citizens of this Commonwealth at this time.

Mr. HABBYSHAW. Mr. Speaker, although there are several provisions of this bill of which we do not approve, we feel that there are several others which do merit our support.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, in voting "aye" on House Bills Nos. 2436 and 2437 I realize that there are some features which may not be desirable by some persons. But since these bills are more in the nature of a codification of the liquor laws which of necessity must be in the form of a compromise, it cannot satisfy all parties affected. Therefore, unless some measure is passed at this time we may not have any constructive legislation on the subject. These bills generally are by far, better than the present existing laws, and should be enacted into law.

It is our desire to give the State Liquor Store System an extension of time and another trial. These bills are in the best interests of the citizens of this Commonwealth at this time.

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, because the administrative desire is to give the Liquor Store system a fair trial and while the bill is not satisfactory to all parties concerned, yet it seems to be the best we can get under the present conditions.

I hope that a fairer bill may be introduced at a later session.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, although there are several provisions of this bill of which we do not approve, we feel that there are several others which do merit our support.

Section 29 (Valuation Report) In addition to the annual report herein required each society shall annually report to the Commissioner a valuation of its benefit fund obligations in force on December thirty-first last preceding excluding those entered into within the year for which the report is filed in cases where the contributions for the first year in whole or in part are used for current expenses Such report of valuation shall show as contingent liabilities the present mid-year value of the promised benefits provided in the constitution and laws of such society under certificates then subject to valuation at not more than four per cent interest less such portion thereof as may have been assumed by other associations or companies and as contingent assets the present mid-year value at the same rate of interest of the future net contributions provided in its Constitution and laws as the same are in practice actually collected

In lieu of the above valuation any society at its option may show the net value of its benefit fund obligations subject to valuation at the rate of interest as hereinbefore provided and said net value when computed in the case of monthly contributions may be the mean of the terminal value for the end of the preceding and of the current certificate years from which said tabular values shall be deducted such portion thereof as may have been assumed by other associations or companies

Each valuation report shall be certified by a competent accountant or actuary or at the request and expense of the society verified by the actuary of the Department of Insurance of the home state of the society and shall be filed with the Insurance Commissioner on or before the first day of April succeeding the submission of the last preceding annual report

The minimum standard of valuation for death benefit fund obligations shall be the National Fraternal Congress Table of Mortality hereinbefore referred to or at the option of the society by any other standard table or a table based upon the society's own experience of at least twenty years and covering not less than one hundred thousand lives with an interest assumption of not more than four per cent

Every valuation report shall set forth clearly and fully the mortality and interest basis and the method of valuation Any society providing for disability benefits shall keep a separate account of the same in its said valuation report shall charge as a liability the balance to the credit of such fund or funds at the date of such valuation Where a combined contribution table is used by a society for both death and permanent and total disability benefits the valuation may be of death benefit only and in such case a separate accounting shall not be required

A report of such valuation with such explanations as the society may deem advisable shall be printed and mailed to each beneficial member of the society not later than July first of each year or in lieu thereof may be published in the society's official paper and the issue containing the same mailed to each beneficial member of the society

Section 30 (Valuation Accumulation Basis) In lieu of the valuation hereinbefore required any society may value its certificates on a basis herein designated "accumulated basis" by crediting each member with the net amount contributed for each year and with interest at approximately the net rate earned and by charging him with his share of the losses for each year herein designated "cost of insurance" and carrying the balance if any to his credit The charge for the cost of insurance may be according to the actual experience of the society as applied to a table of mortality recognized by the law of this Commonwealth and shall take into consideration the amount at risk during each year which shall be the amount payable at death less the credit to the member

Unless specifically provided in its constitution or laws no charge shall be carried forward from the first valuation hereunder against any member for any past share of losses exceeding the contributions and credit If after the first valuation any member's share of losses for any year exceeds his credit including the contributions for the year the contributions shall be increased to cover his share of the losses

Any such excess share of losses chargeable to any member may be paid out of a fund or contributions especially created or required for such purpose Any member may transfer to any plan adopted by the society with net rates on which tabular reserves are maintained and on transfer shall be entitled to take such application to his credit as provided in the laws of the society Certificates issued rerated or readjusted on a basis providing for adequate rates with adequate reserves to mature such certificates upon assumption for mortality and interest recognized by the law of this Commonwealth shall be valued on such basis herein designated the "tabular basis" Provided that if on the first valuation under this section a deficiency in reserve shall be shown for any such certificate the same shall be valued on the accumulation basis

Whenever in any society having members upon the tabular basis and upon the accumulation basis the total of all costs of insurance provided for any year shall be insufficient to meet the actual death and disability losses for the year the deficiency may be met for years from the available funds after setting aside all credits in the reserve or from increased contributions or by an increase in the number of assessments applied in the society as a whole or to classes of members as may be specified in its laws Savings from a lower amount of death losses may be returned in like manner as may be specified by its laws

If the laws of the society so provide the assets representing the reserves of any separate class of members may be carried separate for such class as if an independent society and the required reserve accumulation of such class so set apart shall not thereafter be merged with the assets of other classes of the society

A table showing the credits to individual members for each year and age of entry and showing opposite such credits the tabular reserve required in the whole life or other plan of insurance specified in the contract according to assumptions for mortality and interest recognized by the law of this Commonwealth and adopted by the society shall be filed by the society with each annual report and also be furnished to each member before July first of each year

In lieu of the aforseaid statement there may be furnished to each member within the same time a statement giving the credit for such member and giving the tabular reserve and level rate required for the transfer carrying out the plan of insurance specified in the contract No table or statement need be made or furnished where the reserves are maintained on the tabular basis For this purpose individual bookkeeping accounts for each member shall not be required and all calculations may be made by actual methods

Nothing herein contained shall prevent the maintenance of such surplus over and above the credits on the accumulation basis and the reserves on the tabular basis of any society may provide by or pursuant to its laws nor be construed as giving to the individual member any right or claim to any such reserve or credit other than in manner as expressed in its constitution and laws If the valuation of the certificates as hereinbefore provided shall show that the present value of future net contributions together with the admitted assets is less than the present value of the promised benefits and accrued liabilities such society shall either collect additional assessments or increase the rates of contribution from the members to meet such deficiency or classify its members according to the adequacy of the rates they are contributing and charge each class with its proportion of any deficiency disclosed by any such valuation

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill that is now before you, House Bill No. 2436, takes the licensing power from the county treasurers and places it in the Liquor Control Board.

The bill has many provisions in it. I won't discuss them all, but let me call your attention to just this one. The retailer can sell six bottles of beer, the distributor can sell a case, the brewer can sell a case. There is little or no provision for easy distribution of beer so as to put it in the category of food purposes.

The bill is generally restrictive. It provides for suspension and revocation of liquor licenses by the Board. You have heard its provisions discussed here on the floor. If you are for moving the jurisdiction from your county to Harrisburg, then you are for the bill. If you want home rule to remain, then you are against the bill.

I ask you to vote "no" on the bill and I ask you to keep the jurisdiction back in your own county.

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker and members of the house, I just want to say a few words with regard to this bill, and particularly to the members coming from sections where their constituents are inclined to be dry.

This bill will eradicate many of the evils that have been afflicted upon the distribution of beer, while at the same time it will give better protection to the legitimate dealer and those persons who are entitled to protection. The public has been taken care of in this bill and I would ask everybody to vote "aye" on House Bill 2436.

Mr. VAN ALLSBURG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it was my original intention not to permit my voice to be heard in the halls of this House during my first session as a member of the House, but I cannot refrain from expressing a few thoughts regarding this important measure. I am some what surprized at the discussion that I have heard on these bills pertaining to liquor legislation in the past few days. It seems to me that we have forgotten almost entirely the purpose for which this legislation has been prepared. In the general control law we read the words that these acts shall be for the protection of the public welfare, public health, peace and morals of the people of the Commonwealth, and this particular bill No. 2436, states as its purpose, as stated on page three of the bill, "To regulate and restrain the traffic in malt and brewed beverages."

Now, friends, I don't know how many of you have studied this bill carefully. It has had a rather hectic experience during the past few days, and it has been almost impossible to know what is in this bill. I ask you, do you know what is in the bill?

I want to call your attention to the fact that this bill does have one splendid feature. It aims to tighten up on the inspection and policing of licensed places, the sale of liquor in places, but yet it has bad features that far outweigh this one good feature.

I want to call your attention to the fact that on page 6 of this act eating places are defined as follows: "Eating place means a premise having a total area of not less than three hundred square feet available to the public in one or more rooms other than living quarters and equipped with tables and chairs accommodating thirty persons at one time." I ask you and the sponsors of this bill if you conscientiously and honestly think that is a fair description of an eating place. It says nothing about food being served. However, on page 12, it does say this "Such licenses shall be issued only to reputable persons engaged in the sale of food or beverages." Now, my interpretation of an eating place is not a place where food is just to be served as a retirement to sell liquor at all—absolutely not. It may consist of rooms, a string of rooms, if you please, extending from the front of a store to the back alley, two by four rooms, providing the sum total of the space available in so many hundred square feet. Think of the condition that may be created by such a provision. Is that regulation in the interest of the welfare of the peaple and their morals and for the youth of this Commonwealth? I say "No". I ask you to consider that fact. If the sponsors can find anything to the contrary, I will be glad to hear from Them. I maintain that they are not eating places. Food to be served is not a requirement according to this bill.

In the second place, we have defined in this bill the meaning of the word "hotel" and "eating place" as I have described it, but there is no definition of a club—absolutely not; no definition of a club. It is a poor excuse as compared to the provisions of the old bill, which it amends. Clubs may be open every day, Sundays and week days according to this bill.

Another provision of the bill is found on page 37, in paragraph "g" which provides that these licensed places may erect advertisements advertising the manufacture and brand of beer providing that the sign by which they do the advertising on the outside of the building shall cost at least seventy-five dollars for the sign. I leave it to you, my friends, who will pay for that sign. I ask you if you are willing to put your stamp of approval on a bill that will make it possible to erect huge signs at all these hot dog stands, advertising beer along our highways? Will you approve such a bill?

Now, there are many other features of the bill that I have noticed, but I am not going to take your time to describe them now. I think those I have mentioned are sufficient.

If you want this sort of legislation, vote for it, but if you are really vitally interested in the development of human character and in the future welfare of our boys and girls, you will not vote for such a bill, nor will you vote for a bill which permits women in these drinking places.

In the original bill, the first part of this bill as prepared, it prohibits dancing and floor shows in these places where they sell malt liquors, but in the hurry the other night those features of the bill were removed—splendid features, and I would have gladly supported the bill under those circumstances.

Members of the House, I submit that we can prepare a better bill and that there is still time to pass a better bill.

I ask you to vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. SURFACE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it appears to me that we are going from bad to worse, and particularly in this bill there are some especially pernicious features, as have been pointed out by my colleague from Erie.

For example, on page thirty-four, is permited the selling of liquor at all times regardless of the day or hour. That means on the Sabbath day, that means on election day, at all times regardless of the day or hour. How many persons would like to vote for that kind of bill if they understood it that way? How many would like to live under conditions which permit liquor to be sold on the Sabbath day and on Election day?

It permits the selling to youths after the age of eighteen years. That means you take the young men before they have even reached the flower of manhood and debauch them. It prohibits the selling of liquor to drunken persons and to habitual drinkers, which means that it will let the young men form the habit and then deprive them of the very thing that has ruined their lives. Are we going to vote for this kind of a measure, I say? It says in one place, "An act to prevent the sale of liquor in this state," and then as somebody recently said, instead of preventing the sale of liquor, it provides for it more copiously than in any other bill we have had.

I hope you vote down this pernicious measure.

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman has stated that this bill permits the sale of beer at all hours. Now, that is not correct. Under the old act the sale of beer was permitted at practically all hours during the week. This bill prevents the sale of beer between the hours of two o'clock in the morning and four o'clock in the morning and in that respect the bill is restrictive.

So far as the matter of dancing and theatricals are concerned, the old bill had no regulations whatever concerning those features. This bill has tightened up in that respect, because it does not permit any licensee to have a theatrical performance or a dancing or floor show of any kind or sort unless he first obtains a permit from the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board. That will give us much better enforcement, it will enable to Board to stop lewd shows and do away with much of the complaint that has existed in the past in this respect.

Insofar as an eating place is concerned, the requirements formerly were that it should seat forty persons. For the special benefit of the rural sections, where it is many times more difficult to have a place which will seat forty persons, we have cut that to thirty.

Another statement was made, which I want to correct. It was stated that a person must pay seventy-five dollars for a sign. That is not true. The restrictions are that a manufacurer or a distributor of beer is not permitted to give to any retail licensee any sign advertising his particular product which would be of a value of more than seventy-five dollars for an outside sign. The purpose of that is very evident. There has been much abuse by brewers and manufacturers, by out of the state brewers particularly who come to a retail licensee, and offer him a very expensive sign, provided he will use their beverage. The Pennsylvania brewers are unable to compete with the outside manufacturers in that respect, and therefore, this provision on ultra-signs is inserted for the purpose of protecting the Pennsylvania manufacturers.

Members of the House, this bill is restrictive, as I said before in many respects, but I submit to each and every one of you that the act as it has been in the past has been very unsatisfactory, especially insofar as beer regulation is concerned, and this bill attempts to correct the defects and largely comes from the advice of those who have had the enforcement controlled in the past.

I ask the members to vote for this measure.

Mr. SURFACE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I hope I have not forgot to read in plain English, but in case I have you may read for yourselves, on page 34, under paragraph "c", "the licensee may sell at any time regardless of the day or hour," and I may say that does not limit it to beer.

I have tried hard to keep up with the amendments in this bill, a 66 page bill, and I spent some time reading one yesterday and one today—

The SPEAKER. The last Printer's No. is 1393. Is that the bill the gentleman is discussing?

Mr. SURFACE. No, No. 1392, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I just desire to reply to a few of the arguments made by the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Van Allsburg.

He could not find in the act any definition of an eating place and referred to page 12, to persons engaged in the sale of food and beverages. That, however, is not the definition of an eating place, which on the contrary is found on page 11. I read for the benefit of the House: "Subject to the restrictions hereinafter provided the board shall issue to a person who conducts a reputable hotel or any reputable incorporated club or a reputable bona fide eating place where food is regularly and customarily prepared and sold—"

That will answer the objection that the gentleman raised.

In regard to the statement made by Mr. Surface relative to the time of sale, it is true that so far as clubs are concerned there are no restrictions as to the day or hour, but so far as all of these licensees are concerned, for the first time a provision has been inserted prohibiting the sale of malt beverages after two o'clock in the morning until seven o'clock of the following morning of any day, with no sale on any general municipal or primary election day. That provision is found on page 36, now, of course, Sunday sales are distinctly prohibited except insofar as clubs are concerned

So far as the definition of a club is concerned, that is found in House Bill 2437, and the reason is very obvious, because the license to sell liquors under 2437 includes the right to sell malt beverages.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BLUMBERG. I will.

Mr. TUMELTY. On page 12, lines 7 to 25, are all of those lines cut out of this bill?

Mr. BLUMBERG. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, that would take out that question of selling beverages and using beverages as a place selling malt liquids?

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I didn't get the last part of the question?

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, it says, describing an eating place, "engaged in the sale of food and beverages;" that is cut out of the bill altogether, isn't it?

Mr. BLUMBERG. Does the gentleman mean on line 8, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. TUMELTY. On line 8, Mr. Speaker. Lines 7 to 25 are cut out altogether, is that not correct?

Mr. BLUMBERG. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I just want to bring out that point, because the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Van Allsburg has brought up the question of food and beverages as if you were selling beverages, you could also sell malt or brewed beverages.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading,

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, not so long ago it was discovered that a lot of worthless bail had been entered in Philadelphia through the offices of some magistrates. As a result, an investigation was instituted by the Attorney General of this state and the District Attorney of Philadelphia County, which probe was requested by the Criminal Justice Association and other civic bodies of Philadelphia.

The preliminary report disclosed some amazing facts. It showed that in fifteen months, twenty-four magistrates illegally sent nine hundred ninety-five persons to jail and there were imposed illegally financial penalties on fourteen hundred and fifty-three persons; that there was a failure to dispose of seventy-four hundred seventy-seven criminal cases and that of the twenty-seven hundred and sixty-one defendants accused of liquor law violations about half were freed or their cases were kept in a state of suspended animation. In assault and battery cases by automobile, nine thousand eighty-six defendants out of eleven thousand eight hundred sixty-one were discharged and the cases of one hundred ninety-six more remained unacted upon. Those are merely samples of a few things which are prevalent among the minor judiciary in Philadelphia. It suggests the laxest irregularity or perhaps worse in some cases. There were also found abuses in the issuance of warrants against debt collection and general bad management of the affiairs of the magistrates' offices.

It is not my intention to condemn all the magistrates. In my experience I have found that there are some magistrates in Philadelphia today who have stuck to the letter of the law, who are honest, and who keep their offices in order, but there are those who yield to political pressure in an unfair manner and to the detriment of the citizenry of Philadelphia and of this Commonwealth. As a result of these disclosures of abuses, some people have advocated doing away with the minor judiciary, however, there are two reasons why that is not practical at this time. In the first place, it cannot be done until there is a revision of the Constitution, and in the second place, it is not desirable unless it is the last thing available, because the magistrates courts are the most important in our State. It is the poor man's court, the court of first jurisdiction. If this act under discussion does not do away with the evils and abuses which are prevalent, then it may be found necessary to do away with this court. However, to be fair another opportunity should be given, and the time between now and the time when the revision of the Constitution will take place will in reality be a probationary period for the magistrates' courts in Philadelphia.

This bill provides for the codification of the existing law relating to magistrates. Some of the improvements over the existing law, which are designed to correct the abuses are as follows:

Section 9 prohibits magistrates from engaging in any other business or profession or holding any other public office or from being active in politics. The desirability of this change is self-evident.

Section 24 and 25 of this act established a central police court, to which sufficient magistrates shall be assigned in rotation.

Section 26, 27, and 28 establishes a new system for holding criminal hearings. These sections provide briefly, that the chief magistrate after consultation with the Superintendent of Police shall select twenty station houses conveniently located where all the criminal hearings hereafter be held. To these twenty places selected, the magistrates must be assigned in rotation, no magistrate being permitted to stay more than one month in any one year in any particular period.

This improvement is designed to and will break up the reprehensible practice under which the magistrates only too frequently have been dominated either by ward leaders in charge of the station house or the police commander of that station house.

Further, the provision is made that if the Board of Magistrates fails to provide such a system, that the duty will then devolve upon the judges of the courts of common pleas to provide such a system of rotation.

Section 27 will do away with the evil that attends secret and private hearings of criminal cases so frequently susceptible of extortion and abuse.

Section 29 restricts the release of a person arrested on a copy of the charge in the minor offenses and prohibits such release on major offenses. It also adds to the convenience of the public in obtaining copies of the charge whenever proper under the circumstances.

Section 31 is designed to guard against the discharge of criminals in serious cases without the knowledge of the District Attorney of the county.

Section 33 to 41 provide for a comprehensive system of entry of bail.

It also creates a bail commissioner to be appointed by the Board of Magistrates and who will be responsible for the acceptance of good, sufficient bail.

Section 43 provides for the appointment of a chief magistrate by the Governor of this Commonwealth, among the magistrates selected. This provision, although it has met with some opposition from some quarters, I feel is in line with our system and checks and balances of government. This provision will act as a check and balance on the Board of Judges and the Board of Magistrates, in my opinion.

Section 45 is one of the most important, if not the most important provision in the entire act. It imposes upon the Board of Judges of the Common Pleas Court the power duty generally of supervising the magistrates' court. Under this section the Board of Judges review, overrule, amend or abolish the rules and regulations adopted by the Board of Magistrates. The Board of Judges will be responsible for the proper conduct and the working of the minor judiciary.

Section 48 is very important. It imposes a duty upon the Board of Magistrates to have notes of testimony taken at criminal hearings, so that the procedure may be a matter of record and not be in secrecy as often as was the custom heretofore.

Section 57 makes it unlawful for the magistrates to do certain things. This provision, I believe, will put the magistrates' courts on a higher plane than they have been regarded up until now.

The penalty for violation of any section of this act is punishable by forfeiture of office and a fine not exceeding $500 or imprisonment not to exceed three years or both.

There has been some criticism in some circles because of the fact that the provision whereby the candidate for magistrate must be a lawyer has been eliminated. Its my opinion the elimination was a justifiable one, because I believe that every citizen should be given an equal opportunity to hold public office, provided he has character and ability. The qualifications for office are not always a matter of profession or education but a matter of ability and conscience. In those states where one of the qualifications for the minor judiciary was that of being a lawyer, there was just as much abuse found as in those localities where there were no such qualifications at all.

This act only affects the magistrates in Philadelphia and in no way affects aldermen or justices of the peace outside of Philadelphia.

It is a measure which should and must be enacted for the benefit of the citizenry of the city of Philadelphia, and I, therefore, ask you, each and every member of this House, to vote "aye" on House Bill No. 2692.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Ominsky.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. OMINSKY. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Philadelphia explain to this House what we are going to do with the magistrates' system in the city of Philadelphia after the passage of this bill, No. 2692; what duties will there be left for the magistrates to perform in their respective offices after we have taken all their powers away from them?

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, as I understand the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Schwartz, he wants to know what the magistrates will have to do if this bill should be enacted into law.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, what duties will there be remaining for the magistrates in the city of Philadelphia to perform?

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, the remaining duties for the magistrates, if this bill is enacted, will be to act in a judicial capacity, to be impartial on all occasions and in all cases which may come before them, and if they act in a judicial and impartial manner, then I believe that will be a step further in having them perform the duties they have been sworn to perform.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Philadelphia be kind enough to explain to me what he means by the word "judicial"? Will he be kind enough to explain it in plain language.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, I believe that this act, together with the acts which it repeals, very thoroughly defines what the duties of a magistrate in the city of Philadelphia will be. This act will merely make the magistrates of Philadelphia toe the mark, so to speak, in the carrying out of their duties. The judicial duty of anyone presiding at a trial no matter how insignificant it may be is to act impartially and to decide in accordance with the law as applicable to that particular case.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, is that the judicial duty they will have to perform in Philadelphia?

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, yes.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, did the gentleman say that the bill applies only to cities of the first class?

Mr. OMINSKY. It only applies to the city of Philadelphia, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. The gentleman from Philadelphia has stated that the Governor will appoint a chief magistrate. Is there any such law in any other county in the state of Pennsylvania?

Mr. OMINSKY. No, Mr. Speaker, I believe there is not, but I do feel that this is an innovation.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know that in the city of Philadelphia the population is about two million?

Mr. OMINSKY. I believe I do, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman has stated that out of eleven thousand cases, nine thousand were discharged in a period of fifteen months. Were they all Philadelphians in that period?

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, it was my understanding that they were all from Philadelphia.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, all residents of Philadelphia who were discharged?

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, no; it was my intention to convey to this House that all of those who were discharged were residents of Philadelphia, but they were cases that came before the magistrates in Philadelphia.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know that among those nine thousand that were discharged, there were some cases involving automobile violations and the defendants in some cases were friends of the members of this House, and that quite a few among those nine thousand called me up to help them to be discharged for some minor violation of law committed on the highways in the city of Philadelphia.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Schwartz, regarding his query as to whether all those cases were residents of the city of Philadelphia, I might say that it is true that any city may have transient people who may violate the law when they come to the city, but I feel that the mere fact that they are outsiders does not justify the breaking of the law.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, when did the gentleman offer these amendments to this bill? Were they not offered only yesterday?

Mr. OMINSKY. Well, Mr. Speaker, I don't know just which amendments the gentleman is referring to.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, quite a few of these amendments were offered yesterday by the gentleman.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, no; that is not true. The matter of procedure was offered last night regarding certain repeal acts. I felt that in one or two instances, the repeal acts were too broad in general and, therefore, to clarify the situation and to make sure that this act would only include the city of Philadelphia, two or three amendments were offered last night on second reading.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, there were quite a few amendments offered to this bill last night, and because the bill only appeared on the calendar this morning, I would like to have an opportunity to study this bill, therefore, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Cities for further study.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parlimentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his question of parlimentary inquiry.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know whether the motion of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Schwartz, is in order, since we are at this time on third reading and final passage of this bill.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia is informed that the motion is in order. A motion to recommit is a privileged motion under Rule fifteen of the House.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, rising to oppose this motion to recommit this bill, House Bill 2692 back to committee, I first want to state to the members of this House that I don't believe that this motion is made in good faith. This bill has been on the calendar twice, has been considered twice by the committee on Cities, many amendments have been offered, and all the members of this House have been given an opportunity to offer amendments. The only amendments that were offered last night, as I have stated before, were amendments of procedure to clarify the act and not to change the act in any shape or form.

I, therefore, say that the motion is merely made for the purpose of delay and since we are coming close to the end of the session, I will ask the members to vote "no" on the motion.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House. No more important piece of legislation can come before you than this bill. Never in the history of Pennsylvania have principles been advanced in this House like the principles contained in this bill and never in the history of legal jurisprudence have trial judges been charged with not deciding cases right. In other words, if you will take the bill, page 29, section 57, "It shall be unlawful for any magistrate to allow further hearings in cases after a prima facie case has been made out," and for any violation the magistrate shall suffer forfeiture of office and pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or suffer imprisonment not exceeding three years.

Now, that means that when a litigant goes before a magistrate and the magistrate may honestly and bona fidely believe a prima face case has been made out and he may continue the case for a day or two longer if other and additional evidence is to be brought and no other additional evidence is brought and the magistrate discharges the defendant then the litigant bringing that case before the magistrate can go out and charge the magistrate for having violated the act and then the case would be tried anew, not by the same evidence but by more and additional evidence before a jury of twelve men, and there would be no telling what that jury might say. Therefore, you would have the magistrate in this position: every time he decides a case, the case is reviewable on a bill of indictment charging him with a violation of section 57 and the various clauses or parts of that section, and on whether or not that judgment is good or correct as determined by a jury of twelve men, would depend his liberty.

I would ask the members of this House not to vote for this bill, not to establish a principle like this bill contains, I ask you to vote "no" against this bill.

Would it not be terrible if the decisions of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania were retriable again before a jury of twelve men and women who may know nothing about legal procedure and who may have no experience in matters of this kind? Would it not be awful if the judges of common pleas were to have their decisions retried before a jury of twelve persons? It is just as bad to say that a magistrate must always have in mind, "I must decide this case as twelve jurymen may decide it, otherwise I am a criminal and liable to go to jail for three years."

I ask you to vote "no" on this bill; to vote "no" against this innovation, against this new principle somebody is seeking to engraft upon the law of Pennsylvania.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, just a word in answer to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, concerning the point of the prima facie case. I believe that he, as a lawyer, knows that if a magistrate or any other individual enters a decision which under the circumstances makes it appear that there is an honest mistake made in that decision, there is no criminal prosecution ever instituted on a mistake or on the fact that the individual either erred honestly or did not really do it intentionally. Under this provision, as stated in the bill, if the magistrate made an error of judgment, the penalties which the gentleman has elaborated to you would not be imposed upon him. That is only in those cases where the magistrate knows that he is doing wrong and does wrong that these penalties will apply.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise at this time to oppose House Bill 2356 for the reason that I feel it is a rather bad piece of legislation. True enough in periods of stress and strain like the present time we are prone to jump rather hastily at conclusions, to do the state and people of the state a lot of good, but a bill like this is not doing justice to the citizens of Pennsylvania. We become rather provincial and we commence to think that legislation of this sort will benefit the state. There are forty-eight states in this Union and none of those states should be foreign to the other. Legislation of this sort would only force other states to put through their general assemblies legislation similar to this and within a short period of time we can visualize forty-eight states fighting one against the other and none of them benefiting.

I wish that the members of the House would vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Tronzo.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Tronzo, point out where in this bill it sets up any barrier on public work against outside manufactured products when they are the low bidder, because we all know on all public projects they are supposed to award the work to the low bidder.

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman, I wish to state that the effect of the bill is to force state-aided institutions to purchase a certain type of material within the state if there is a concern within that state selling at a similar rate that outside concerns would be selling the merchandise, and that in itself is rather bad.

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, however, is there anything in this bill which would prevent the manufacturer or producer from another state obtaining the business if he is the low bidder.

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker, I will answer that by saying probably not, but that still is not the scope of the bill.

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the purpose of this bill in its present form is to insure that the taxpayer's money goes to the best advantage in the purchase of materials in the construction of buildings. We have taken this measure up with the Department of Property and Supplies and it is perfectly agreeable to them and in fact the Director pointed out to me the very abuse for which this bill is intended, namely that contracts for work wherein the contractor after obtaining the business attempts to get approval on equal products, and yet if it was not particularly specified in the beginning, some certain party, an architect or engineer can refuse to give him that approval with the result that the contractor is dependent upon the goodwill and the cooperation of the architect, because everything in the building has to be approved by the architect, so he must be unduly submissive in such cases and cannot force recognition of the low bidder who in many cases is a Pennsylvania manufacturer. The same thing would apply even to an out of the state manufacturer and there is nothing in this bill that sets up any barrier of any type whatsoever. It merely insures careful watching on the part of the political subdivisions, and the buying authorities to see that in these particular instances they purchase stuff and materials at the lowest price for which it can be had and naturally favor when they are the low bidder only, their home industry.

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman seems to be expressing the fact that there is a low bidder involved in this bill, I fail to see it. It is not a low bidder but a bidder within the state who gives a similar bid that an outsider would give and there is really no reason for it. Naturally if the contractor within the state has a low bid, he gets it, but there is no reason to curtail an out of state contractor who gives the same bid. That seems to be the gist of the bill. For that reason I think we should vote against it.
